Applicants are required to escrow the indicated amount of cash with the Town and may be required to sign an escrow agreement. Applicants are responsible for fully reimbursing the Town for all professional fees it incurs related to the request. The Town uses the escrow funds to reimburse itself for these fees and if the escrow is not sufficient to fully reimburse the Town, the applicant will be billed or will be required to submit additional funds to be placed in escrow. Any unreimbursed amounts constitute a service charge the Town will certify to the County Auditor for collection on the applicant's property as provided in Minn. Stat. § 366.012.
