CHAPTER 2 – ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES

3-2-3: CLASSIFICATIONS OF LICENSES:

Business licenses issued under this chapter shall match the classification and type issued under the Utah Alcoholic Beverage Control Act or successor statute as closely as possible given local context and be known as: a) the on-premise beer retailer license; b) the restaurant liquor license; c) the bar establishment liquor license; d) the retail off-premise beer retailer license, and e) the on-premise banquet license.

A. On-Premise Beer Retailer License: The on-premise beer retailer license shall entitle the licensee to sell beer in accordance with the provisions of state law governing its license of same name, which is adopted herein by reference, and with other relevant ordinances of the town.

B. Restaurant Liquor License: The restaurant liquor license shall entitle the licensee to sell alcoholic beverages in accordance with the provisions of state law governing its license of same name, which is adopted herein by reference, and with other relevant ordinances of the town.

C. Bar Establishment Liquor License: The bar establishment liquor license shall entitle the licensee to sell alcoholic beverages in accordance with the provisions of state law governing its license of same name, which is adopted herein by reference, and with other relevant ordinances of the town.

D. Off-Premise Beer Retailer License: The off-premise beer retailer license shall entitle the licensee to sell beer in closed containers for consumption off of the premises of the licensee. The town imposes no restriction as to the hours during which beer may be sold under this license nor as to the days on which beer may be sold; however, the licensee shall conform to all laws and regulations of the state applicable to retail off premises sales of beer in containers, including minimum ages for employees who sell beer.

E. On-Premise Banquet License: The on-premise banquet license shall entitle the licensee to the storage, sale, service, and consumption of alcoholic beverages for banquet activities on the premises of a hotel, resort facility, sports center, or convention center in accordance with the state law governing its license of the same name, which is adopted herein by reference, and with other relevant ordinances of the town.

F. Single Event Permit: A Single Event Permit is required for sales of any alcoholic beverage at a public or private event involving a cash bar, hosted bar, or that is open to the public and does not fall under another license type.
