⚙️ How to Positively Interact with Someone with Dementia

Why do I need to know about Dementia? Knowledge is power! Currently in the United States there are more than 6 million people living with Alzheimer's or another form of dementia. That number is expected to double by 2040. YOU will encounter Dementia whether it be with a spouse, parent, grandparent, neighbor, or friend.
It is up to you to be prepared.

Refreshments will be served!
