

Fieldworkers of your Assessor's Office

From September through March, field personnel from your assessor's office will be working throughout Randall reviewing and describing properties with permitted improvements, new buildings, and properties that have sold during the past two years.

Field personnel will have a picture ID and will be driving a white vehicle with identifying logos.

Gerad Gage

Mike Ruscinski

