Season to Move

Friday, October 3 at 3:30 PM

Inspired by the initiative Let's Move in Libraries, join Season to Move! Every month we will be outdoors, rain or shine, hot or cold, to offer space and time to just be outdoors. Meet at the library and we'll look in our green space for bugs to identify.

NextGen Engineering

Second Wednesday of Every Month

Wednesday October 8 at 3:30 PM

NextGen Engineers will be learning simple codes and cyphers. Learn, break codes, plan new ones, and use your skills around town in the library Hunt for the Headless Horseman.

Read to a Dog

Third Thursday of Every Month

October 16 at 3:30 PM

Practice reading aloud to a cute, friendly and furry friend! All ages and reading levels are welcome. Reading out loud aids in comprehension, reduces stress, hones memory and attention, strengthens fluency, builds vocabulary, but most importantly, it's fun!

ALL AGES:

Hunt the Headless Horseman

All month long Hunt the Headless Horseman through town. Start at the library. Decode clues and cyphers to determine which site to progress to on Main Street. Team up with friends. Available for all ages and available all month long in October.
