

RESOLUTION NO. 2022-01

Town of Avon
Rock County, Wisconsin

ARPA funds to be allocated for provision of services

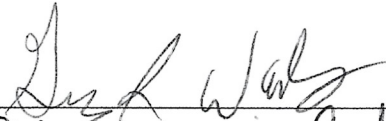

The U.S. Department of the Treasury is releasing American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA) funds to the Town of Avon in the amount of $64,057.16.

The ARPA Final Rule, which went into effect April 1, 2022, offers a standard allowance for revenue loss of up to $10 million. Furthermore, the Final Rule allows municipalities to use that standard allowance to help fund the provision of standard services.

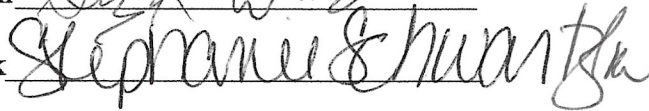

Therefore be it resolved that the Town Board of the Town of Avon elects to use the standard allowance and allocate all of the Town of Avon's ARPA funding, which totals $64,057.16, for the provision of services including, but not limited to, roadway maintenance. Let it also be resolved that all of the Town of Avon's ARPA funding will be designated for expenditure by the end of calendar year 2024, and that all of the funding must be spent by the end of calendar year 2026.
