

I WOULD LIKE TO HUNT
IN THE TOWN OF GRAFTON

There is hunting allowed in the Town of Grafton in some areas

See - No Firearms Discharge map for restricted area –

Also read Town code

If you own property in the Town of Grafton you may discharge on your own property without a Town permit.

However, Per Town Code: No person shall discharge within 150 yards of a residence or dwelling of another or within the restricted area. This prohibition shall not apply to the discharge if a firearm is for the purpose of controlling agricultural pests by the owner or lessee of lands within the Town of Grafton on premises owned or leased by such owner or lessee.

If you have permission from a Land owner to hunt his/her property you must obtain a Weapons discharge permit and have it with you when hunting.
