

Johnson in Lamoille County, Vermont — The American Northeast (New England)

Julian Scott 1846-1901

Inscription.

Julian Scott, Vermont's most renowned Civil War artist, was born in this Johnson house in 1846. At the start of the Civil War, when only 15, he enlisted as a fifer in the Third Vermont Regiment. Scott was awarded a Medal of Honor -- for rescuing wounded under enemy fire at the Battle of Lee's Mills, Virginia. He later studied art under Emanuel Leutze at the National Academy of Design in New York and in 1870 was elected an associate member of the Academy. "The Battle of Cedar Creek," his monumental 1874 painting, was commissioned as a Civil War memorial for the Vermont State House. Scott's Civil War and Native American paintings are acclaimed for their authenticity, detail, and democratic viewpoint. He died in Plainfield, New Jersey, in 1901.

Photographed by Kevin Craft, September 25, 2014

1. Julian Scott Marker

Erected 1998 by Vermont Division for Historic Preservation.

Topics and series. This historical marker is listed in these topic lists: Arts, Letters, Music • Indigenous Peoples and Communities • War, US Civil. In addition, it is included in the Medal of Honor Recipients, and the Vermont Division for Historic Preservation Markers series lists. A significant historical year for this entry is 1846.

Click or scan to see this page online

Location. 44° 38.183' N, 72° 41.212' W. Marker is in Johnson, Vermont, in Lamoille County. It is on Lower Main Street West (Vermont Route 15) 0.6 miles west of Route 100-C, on the right when traveling west. Touch for map. Marker is at or near this postal address: 384 Lower Main Street West, Johnson VT 05656, United States of America. Touch for directions.

Regionally, this marker is in Vermont's Green Mountains. It is also in the American Northeast and in New England. Globally, it is in North America, the Great North Woods, the Western Hemisphere, the Western World, and the Anglosphere.

Other nearby markers. At least 8 other markers are within 7 miles of this marker, measured as the crow flies: Town of Johnson World War and Spanish War Honor Roll (about 500 feet away, measured in a direct line); Town of Johnson Civil War Honor Roll (about 600 feet away); Cambridge Rail Era History II (approx. 6.3 miles away); Cambridge Rail Era History I (approx. 6.3 miles away); Cambridge Junction Bridge (approx. 6.4 miles away); Morrisville Depot (approx. 6.6 miles away); Bijou Theatre (approx. 6.7 miles away); Noyes House Museum (approx. 6.7 miles away). Touch for a list and map of all markers in Johnson.

More about this marker. Marker is located just west of the center of the village and in front of the Johnson Health Clinic.

Also see ...

Wikipedia entry for Julian Scott. (Submitted on September 30, 2014, by Kevin Craft of Bedford, Quebec.)

Photographed by Kevin Craft, September 25, 2014

2. Wideview of Julian Scott Marker

Photographed by Kevin Craft, September 25, 2014

3. Julian Scott Birthplace

(Currently houses the Johnson Health
Clinic and The Diabetes Center of Lamoille Valley)

Credits. This page was last revised on August 29, 2016. It was originally submitted on September 29, 2014, by Kevin Craft of Bedford, Quebec. This page has been viewed 1,049 times since then and 107 times this year. Photos: 1, 2, 3. submitted on September 29, 2014, by Kevin Craft of Bedford, Quebec. • Bernard Fisher was the editor who published this page.

m=77551

Copyright © 2006–2026, Some rights reserved.

