Successful Local Retail Promotions

-- excerpt from National Trust Main Street Center Promotion Handbook

Retail promotion can be more creative, innovative, and successful if you take the time to brainstorm ideas and plan targeted events with the merchants in mind.

Consider the following types of Local promotions:

- Retail events that favor unique downtown retail features such as convenience, service, variety, familiarity, or exclusiveness.
 - "Service is our Signature" poster series
 - "The Owner is Home" ad campaign
 - "Shop Downtown" radio jingle
- Cooperative promotion focuses on the comparative aspects of retailing in the district, clustering stores that are in the same category and can be promoted together.
 - Spring Fashion Show
 - "Taste of Main Street" restaurant guide
 - "Antique Days" co-op ads for stores
 - Mother's Day promotion of gift shops
- Cross-retail promotion groups businesses with complementary goods in one retail event or in coordinated displays.
 - joint window displays: clothing/ jewelry
 - "Home Improvement" promotion of furniture and hardware stores
- Niche promotion focuses attention, not on the product mix, but on a specific consumer group targeted through specially distributed flyers, coupons, posters, and/or media ads
 - "Appreciation Days" for senior citizens
 - Employee coupons for area workers
 - "Dad's Day Out" Saturday promotion
 - "After School" specials for students
- "Sales" events are typically discount oriented, offering end-of-season "clearance" merchandise at a reduced price. (Warning: too many discounted "sales" is not a good strategy; plus major market competitors have big budgets and are more skilled and successful at deep discounting than the small, independent merchants.)
