SHEET TITLE
1.0

SECTION 8.09 MEASURES TO PROTECT TOWN ROADS.*(a) Definitions.

- (1) Heavy Equipment. All vehicles not operating completely on pneumatic tires and all vehicles or combination of vehicles, other than motor buses, not licensed for operation on public highways, and having a gross weight of more than 6,000 pounds.

(b) Protection of Roadway.

No person shall load, unload, drive or permit the loading, unloading or driving of heavy equipment onto the roadway of a Town highway, as defined in Wis. Stats. § 340.01(54), without placing material upon the roadway designed to protect the roadway from any damage caused by but not limited to heavy equipment, trailer tongues or ramp edges. Such protective measures for the Town roadway include, but are not limited to, mats, sand, tires or plywood sheets or a combination thereof as required to meet the particular circumstance. [Amended by Ord. No. 2009-08, 6/23/09.]

(c) Forfeiture and Penalty.

Any person who fails to protect the Town roadway from heavy equipment by loading, unloading or driving on, as set forth in (b) above, shall be subject to forfeiture pursuant to Section 1.03 of this Code and shall be liable for the cost of repairs of damage caused. Town will have damage repaired and will bill the individual causing damage, to be paid within 30 days of billing or incur interest penalty of 1% per month.

(d) Exception.

This section shall not apply to the unloading of heavy equipment onto a Town roadway when the purpose for unloading said heavy equipment is to repair or replace the section of the roadway onto which the heavy equipment is unloaded and such unloading or movement will not increase the cost of repair or replacement.

History Note: The above and foregoing Ordinance was duly adopted at a regular meeting of the Town Board of the Town of Dekorra on the 8th day of May, 2001 Ordinance 2001-05-08(b); repealed and recreated by the Town Board of Dekorra on the 9th day of September, 2003; repealed and recreated by Ord. 2007-13; amended June 23, 2009, Ord. No. 2009-08.
