Application for an established Water Service

I hereby apply to the town of Genola, Utah for a culinary water service from the city system to property located at the following address:

and hereby agree to the following:

1. I understand that it is unlawful for me to close or open the valve on the front side or the city-side of the meter.
2. I understand the municipality has authority to inspect all plumbing upon my premises to determine whether same meets standards of the state health department regarding cross-connection and for back-flow, and that I must, at my own expense, improve/change my plumbing to meet such standards as directed by the water superintendent.
3. I will be bound by the rules, regulations, resolutions, or ordinances enacted now or hereafter by the municipality's water system.
4. The purpose for which the water connection will be used is _____.
5. The municipality shall have free access to the lines and meters installed under this agreement and, at reasonable times, through my property if necessary.
6. Application by the tenant of an owner must in addition to the above requirements be guaranteed by an agreement signed by the owner of the property or his duly authorized agent. In consideration of the acceptance of the application for water service submitted by _____, I will or we will pay for all water services for any such tenant or any other occupant of _____ property in case such tenant or occupants shall fail to pay for the same according to the ordinances, rules, regulations or resolutions enacted by the City.

Notice of Right to Agricultural Activities

The Town of Genola permits properly conducted agricultural activities and agricultural operations within the Town.

You are hereby notified that the property you are purchasing, leasing, renting and/or developing is located within an agricultural area that contains agriculture and which contains agricultural activities, agricultural operations or agricultural lands.

You may be subject to inconveniences or discomfort from lawful agricultural activities or agricultural operations. Discomfort or inconvenience may include, but are not limited to, noise, odors, fumes, dust, smoke, burning, vibrations, insects, rodents and/or the operation of machinery (including air craft) at any time during the day or night.

One or more of these inconveniences described may occur as a result of agricultural operations, which are in compliance with existing laws and regulations and accepted customs and standards. If you live near an agricultural area, you should be prepared to accept such inconveniences or discomforts as a normal and necessary aspect of living in an area with strong rural character and an active agricultural sector.

Lawful ground rig or aerial application of pesticides, herbicides and fertilizers occur in farming operations.

The Town of Genola's Right to Agricultural Activities Ordinance does not exempt farmers or others from compliance with law. Should a farmer or other person not comply with appropriate state, federal, or local laws, legal course is possible by, among other ways, contacting the appropriate agency.

RIGHT TO AGRICULTURAL ACTIVITIES ORDINANCE

Purpose: The Town of Genola values its rich agricultural heritage and values agricultural activities as a component of the Town community fabric quality of life amenities and contributions to the Town. The Town of Genola places value on its agricultural areas and desires to provide for the protection and preservation of agricultural activities in addition to those protections not covered by the provisions of the Agricultural Protection Area legislation contained in Title 17, Chapter 41, Utah Code Annotated, 1953. It is the policy of the Town of Genola to preserve and protect agricultural activities and to reduce the occurrence of conflicts between agricultural activities and non-agricultural land uses and to protect the public health. It is a purpose of the Town to reduce the loss of agricultural activities by limiting the circumstances under which agricultural activities may be deemed a nuisance.
