

Providing for a Civil Defense Organization and for protection and promotion of public safety, health, and welfare in the Village of Marquette during Civil Defense emergencies.

THE VILLAGE BOARD OF THE VILLAGE OF MARQUETTE DO ORDAIN
AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1. POLICY AND PURPOSE.

(a) "Civil Defense" shall mean the preparation for and the carrying out of all emergency functions, other than functions for which the military forces are primarily responsible, to minimize and repair injury and damage resulting from disaster caused by enemy attack, sabotage, or other hostile action, or by fire, flood or other natural causes.

(b) By reason of the increasing possibility of disasters of unprecedented size and destructiveness, and to insure that preparations will be adequate to cope with such disasters, and to provide for the common defense, to protect the public peace, health, safety, and general welfare, and to preserve the lives and property of the people, it is hereby declared necessary:

- (1) To establish a local civil defense organization.,
- (2) To provide for the exercise of necessary powers during civil defense emergencies; and
- (3) To provide for the rendering of cooperation and mutual aid between this Village and other political subdivisions.

(c) It is further declared to be the purpose of this ordinance and the policy of the county that all civil defense functions of this county be coordinated to the maximum extent practicable with existing services and facilities of this village, county, and with comparable functions of the federal, state, and county government and other political subdivisions, and of various private agencies to the end that the most effective preparation and use may be made of manpower, resources, and facilities for dealing with any disaster that may occur.

SECTION 2. CIVIL DEFENSE COMMISSION.

(a) How Constituted.

There is hereby created a civil defense commission composed of a Chairman, and as many additional members as may be determined by the Village Board by resolution who shall be appointed by the President of the Village Board, subject to the confirmation of the Village Board of trustees.

(b) Duties of Defense Commission.

The civil defense ocommission shall be an advisory and planning group and shall advise the President of the Village Board, coordinator, and the board on all matters pertaining to civil defense. The civil defense commission shall meet upon the call of the chairman.

SECTION 3. CIVIL DEFENSE COORDINATOR

(a) appointment.

The office of coordinator of civil defense is hereby created. The coordinator shall be appointed by the Civil Defense Committee and shall receive such salary as may be authorized by the Village Board. He shall take and file an official oath.

Deputy and assistant coordinators may be appointed by the coordinator subject to the approval of the civil defense commission, as may be deemed necessary, and such appointees shall receive such compensation as may be determined by the Village Board of Trustees.

(b) Duties and Authority of Coordinator.

(1) The coordinator shall be the executive head of the civil defense organization and shall have direct responsibility for the organization, administration and operation of the civil defense organization, subject to the direction and control of the President of the Village Board of trustees, and trustees of the Village Board. He shall coordinate all activities for civil defense within the village, and shall maintain liaison and cooperate with civil defense agencies and organizations of other political subdivisions and of the state and federal government, and shall participate in count and state civil defense activities upon request, and shall have such additional authority, duties and responsibilities as are authorized by this ordinance and as may from time to time be required by the Village board of trustees.

(2) The coordinator shall prepare a comprehensive general plan for the civil defense of the county and shall present such plan to the County Board of Supervisors for its approval. When the County Board of Supervisors has approved the plan by resolution, it shall be the duty of all municipal agencies and all civil defense forces of the county to perform the duties and functions assigned by the plan as approved. The plan may be modified in like manner.

SECTION 4. UTILIZATION OF EXISTING SERVICE AND FACILITIES.

In preparing and executing the civil defense plan, the director shall utilize the services, equipment, supplies and facilities of the existing departments and agencies of the county to the maximum extent practicable; and the officers and personnel of all such departments and agencies are directed to cooperate with and extend such services and facilities to the coordinator.

SECTION 5. EMERGENCY REGULATIONS.

Whenever necessary to meet a civil defense emergency for which adequate regulations have not been adopted by the County Board of Supervisors the Chairman of the County Board of Supervisors and in his absence, the coordinator of civil defense, may by proclamation promulgate and enforce such orders, rules and regulations relating to the conduct of persons and the use of property as shall be necessary to protect the public peace, health and safety, and preserve lives and property and to insure the cooperation necessary in civil defense activities. Such proclamations shall be posted in three public places and may be rescinded by the County Board of Supervisors by resolution at any time.

SECTION 6. MUTUAL AID AGREEMENTS.

The Director of civil defense may, subject to the approval of the County Board of Supervisors, enter into mutual aid agreements with other political subdivisions. Copies of such agreements shall be filed with the state director of civil defense.

SECTION 7. DECLARATION OF EMERGENCIES.

Upon the declaration by the governor, by the Chairman of the County Board or Supervisors or by the civil defense coordinator in the absence of the Chairman of the County Board of Supervisors, or by the County Board of Supervisors of a state of emergency, the coordinator of civil defense shall issue all necessary proclamations as to the existence of such state of emergency and shall issue such disaster warning or alerts as shall be required in the civil defense plan.

The civil defense organization shall take action in accordance with the civil defense plan only after the declaration of an emergency and the issuance of official disaster warnings. Such state of emergency shall continue until terminated by the issuing authority, provided that any such declaration not issued by the governor may be terminated at the discretion of the County Board of Supervisors.

SECTION 8. PENALTIES.

It shall be unlawful for any person wilfully to obstruct, hinder or delay any member of the civil defense organization in the enforcement of any order, rule, regulation, or plan issued pursuant to this ordinance, or to do any act forbidden by any order, rule, regulation or plan issued pursuant to the authority contained in this ordinance. For a violation of any of the provisions of this ordinance he shall forfeit not less than $100 nor more than $500, and in default of payment thereof, shall be imprisoned in the county jail for a period not exceeding 90 days.

SECTION 9.

This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and posting.
