

Amendment #5 To Boulder Junction Ordinance 1-2004
Uniform Dwelling Code

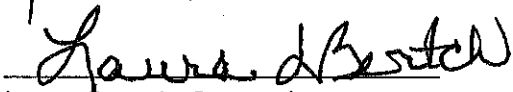

Whereas the Town Board of Boulder Junction has an ordinance to establish uniform installation and inspection procedures, the Uniform Dwelling Code for the Town of Boulder Junction, Wisconsin, Ordinance 1 -2004, shall be amended to add the following language:

1.4(a) Notwithstanding Wis Adm. Code SPS 320.05, the scope includes the construction and inspection of detached garages serving one- and two-family dwellings and boat houses and new service installations on vacant parcels. The building structures and any heating, electrical or plumbing systems shall comply with the Uniform Dwelling Code.
