For anyone interested in running for local office:

Thinking about running for a local office in 2027? Come to a free, 'non-partisan' candidate information session for Vilas County residents (and surrounding areas) on December 5, 2-4 pm at the Veterans Resource Center, 418 W. Pine Street, in Eagle River.

A non-partisan candidate informational session is being held for those in and around Vilas County on December 5, from 2 - 4 pm, at the Veterans Resource Center (Formerly VFW Post 8637), 418 W. Pine Street, Eagle River, Wisconsin.

The event is free and open to the public and sponsored by the Veterans Resource Center, Leadership Program of the Eagle River Rotary Club, The League of Women Voters of the Northwoods, and WXPR.

This event is for anyone considering a run for office and covers what you need to launch a successful candidacy. You will learn how to file papers and run for elected office in Vilas County, Eagle River, Arbor Vitae, Boulder Junction, Cloverland, Conover, Lac du Flambeau, Land O' Lakes, Lincoln, Manitowish Waters, Phelps, Plum Lake, Presque Isle, St. Germain, Three Lakes, Washington, and Winchester.

This nonpartisan session will help you choose the right public office, understand filing deadlines, craft your candidacy statement and talking points for door-to-door canvassing, and more. Panelists who have run for local office will share their insights and advice.

Registration for the event is not necessary. General admission seating will be first come, first served.
