White Christmas 2024
is proudly dedicated to

Bill Jankins

The man we honor today, Bill Jankins, was born in 1937 and spent his entire childhood in a house on Warfield Road in West Brookfield. After marrying his high school sweetheart, Louise Dumas, the couple moved away from Town, moving back in 1966 to 67 East Main Street to begin raising their family. Bill also began decades of service to the community — to organizations such as the Volunteer Rescue Squad, Quaboag Historical Society, Rotary Club, serving as Chairman of the Quaboag Plantation 350th Anniversary Committee, Lake Wickaboag Boat Club, School Committee, and Little League baseball. His real passion has been the history of West Brookfield; collecting volumes of pictures, postcards, and artifacts documenting the past. These were shown in a book he authored, titled West Brookfield, published in 2015, when he was 78. Bill continues to share his historical documents with others through his popular website “A Stroll through West Brookfield” and has prepared many local presentations on Foster Hill, Lucy Stone, Lake Wickaboag, and Hitchcock Tavern. At a dinner honoring him, State Senator Brewer called Bill a “great American”, but even more so, he is a “great West Brookfielder!” Still living in the house he settled in on East Main Street nearly 60 years ago, Bill is 100% West Brookfield ... Whether it's having breakfast with his buddies, chatting with friends as he makes his daily run to get the mail, or visiting with others as he sits on his porch, Bill truly loves the town of West Brookfield and its history, but most of all, he loves its people.
