Mr. Leffler,

We will add your comments to the file. To answer your questions, Ada County owns the two parcels adjacent to Alworth and Idaho Parks Foundation owns Plantation island. A De-annexation reverts back to the County. The County would have primary responsibility for the policing jurisdiction. This is the reason that the police department has requested that there be the de-annexation. This way there would be a cohesive policing effort for the properties surrounding the new park that the County is currently constructing.

Sincerely,

Subject: Re: CITY OF GARDEN CITY AGENCY NOTICE

With the de-annexation, what agency would have responsibility for the property, Boise or the County? If there is a crime committed on the property who has jurisdiction? Who OWNS the property or is it Public Lands? I do not see these answers in the Application.

Thank you,

-Charles Leffler
