Garden City Police Respond to Active Shooter

Garden City, Idaho – Garden City Police are currently investigating an active shooter event that occurred at approximately 9:30 AM in the 9200 block of Stoneham.

Details: At approximately 9:30 AM Garden City Officers were dispatched to a report of shots being fired in and from a residence in the 9200 block of Stoneham Drive in Garden City. Upon arrival, officers heard and saw gunshots being fired out of the house in their direction. Officers also learned that there was another person in the house other than the shooter.

Officers immediately entered the house, where they located the other person and brought them to safety. Officers were able to take the suspect into custody without incident. Two officers fired their department-issued firearms. No one was hurt during the incident.

The Ada County Critical Incident Task Force was activated, and the Boise Police Department is leading the investigation. This is still an ongoing investigation and there is no further information available at this time.
