Garden City Police intoxicated driver for Aggravated DUI

On August 12th, 2024, at approximately 7:37 pm, Garden City Police responded to a hit and run injury accident near W. Marigold Street and N. Glenwood Street. Upon arrival, officers learned a person in a black pickup had struck a three wheeled motorcycle and fled the scene.

The 62 year old male driver of the motorcycle and an 8 year old passenger sustained minor injuries.

While conducting an area search for the suspect, officers located the suspect near Thurman and Garrett Streets. At the conclusion of their investigation officers arrested Jesse Breshears on the following charges:

Aggravated Driving Under the Influence	Felony
Leaving the scene of an accident	Felony
Open Container by Driver	Misdemeanor

Breshears will be arraigned at 1:30 pm on Tuesday August 12th at the Ada County Courthouse.

The Garden City Police Department issued the following statement, "There is absolutely no excuse to drink and drive. If you are going to drink, make good choices – get a friend to drive you home or call a ride share. This incident should never have happened and we are very lucky the victims did not suffer worse injuries."
