

Conditional Use Permit

Approval Process:

Town of Kennan

Step 1: Pre-application Staff Meeting

Although not required, it is recommended that the applicant meet with the Zoning Administrator to discuss the proposed request. This step is intended to explain to the applicant the purpose and objectives of the regulations and the comprehensive plan, and to informally reach mutual conclusions regarding the general program and objectives of the proposed development.

Step 2: File Application Materials

The applicant submits a completed application form, other necessary materials, and a $150 application fee. The application materials shall include the following items:

- a) A description of the type of structure(s) on the site, proposed operation or use, the number of employees.
- b) A Site Plan that shows the dimensions of the property, location, dimensions and setbacks of any existing or proposed buildings, parking areas, landscaping, exterior lighting, and signage.
- c) Additional information as required by the Zoning Administrator.

Upon receipt of the necessary materials, a preliminary review will be placed on the agenda for the next available Plan Commission meeting. The application deadline for getting on the next agenda is twenty (20) working days prior to the meeting. The Plan Commission meets on the first Monday of the month, at 5:30 p.m. at the Kennan-Georgetown Municipal Building.

Step 3: Preliminary Review

The Zoning Administrator, including representatives of various town departments as needed, will provide a technical review of the request and the submitted information to identify relevant issues. If extensive changes are required or more information is needed to adequately review the application (e.g. additional plans or engineering studies), the application may be rescheduled to a later Planning Commission meeting date to allow time for the necessary work to be completed. If deficiencies are minor, the item will be scheduled for a Planning Commission meeting, subject to revised plans being submitted at a later date. The public hearing may be scheduled at the preliminary review.

Step 4: Public Notice

Zoning Administrator will publish a notice in the newspaper and give written notice to landowners within three-hundred (300) feet of the subject property as to what is being proposed and where a public hearing will be conducted on your proposal. It's advisable that you contact adjacent landowners in advance of the hearing to inform them of your intentions to help clarify any concerns.

Step 5: Plan Commission Review/ Recommendation (Public Hearing)

The Plan Commission shall review the proposed request and shall recommend that the conditional use permit be granted as requested, modified, or denied. The applicant should attend this meeting and be prepared to present the request and answer questions from the Plan Commission. Public statements will be allowed at this meeting.

Step 6: Town Board Review and Action

The Town Board shall review the proposed request and shall recommend that the conditional use permit be granted as requested, modified, or denied. The applicant and members of the public will be allowed to make statements regarding the request. Following such hearing and after careful consideration of the Plan Commission's recommendations and public comments, the Town Board shall vote on the application. The approval may include conditions placed on the operation of the use such as hours of operation, parking, screening, etc. The Town Board meets on the first Monday of each month, at 6:00 p.m. at the Kennan-Georgetown Municipal Building.

In the case of a denial, no application requesting the same or similar action may be resubmitted by the original applicant or his/her agent for the same property before the passage of six (6) months following Town Board action.
