12.015 FINDINGS AND INTENT. (1) This subchapter is a regulatory measure aimed at protecting the health and safety of at-risk individuals, including children and the elderly, in the City of Darlington from the risk that convicted sex offenders may re-offend in locations close to their residences. The city finds and declares that sex offenders are a serious threat to public safety. When convicted sex offenders re- enter society, they are much more likely than other types of offenders to be re-arrested for a new sexual assault. Given the high rate of recidivism for sex offenders and that reducing opportunity and temptation is important to minimizing the risk of re-offending, there is a need to protect children and other at-risk individuals where they congregate or play in public places in addition to the protections that may be afforded by state law near schools, day care centers and other places children frequent. The city finds and declares that in addition to schools and day care centers, children congregate or play in the city at public parks, camps, and public trails.

(a) It is not the intention of the City to punish sex offenders, but rather to serve the City's compelling interest to promote, protect and improve the health, safety, and welfare of the citizens of the City by creating areas around certain locations where at-risk individuals and children regularly congregate in concentrated numbers, wherein sex offenders are prohibited from establishing a temporary or permanent residence, from loitering, and from engaging in certain activities.

- (c) In the case of a denial, the common council shall provide a written copy of the decision containing the reasons therein for its decision to the police department for their information and to the affected party as soon as possible thereafter.
- (d) If an exemption or conditional exemption is granted by the Common Council that exemption will only apply to the specific sex offender who had applied for the exemption at the requested residence and shall not be transferable to any other or to any other location.
- (e) An exemption expires when the sex offender who was granted said exemption changes his or her permanent residence and/or changes his or her residence, whether within the City or outside the City.
- (f) An exemption or conditional exemption issued by the Common Council may be revoked if the sex offender is found to have violated the conditions or there is probable cause to believe the sex offender has committed additional act(s), which had occurred either before or after the exemption or conditional exemption was issued, that would cause a person to be classified as a sex offender. The Common Council shall provide written notice to the sex offender that the exemption or conditional exemption has been revoked. This notice shall be deemed properly delivered if sent by either first class mail to the sex offender's last known address or if delivered in person to the sex offender's last known address.
