

Banning Policy of the McCoy Public Library

Approved by the McCoy Public Library Board of Trustees: May 2023

Banning Procedure:

After staff determine that a person has engaged in severe or repeat misconduct, is not adhering to the Behavior Policy, or staff has determined that the individual involved should be banned:

1. First offense: the individual will be banned from the property for one day.
2. Second offense: the individual will be banned from the property for one week.
3. Third offense: the individual will be banned from the property for one month.
4. If an individual continues the misconduct, they will be banned indefinitely or until they request an appeal with the Library Board.

Non-compliance with Ban - Trespassing:

If a banned individual enters McCoy Public Library before the return date listed in the ban, police will be called, and an individual may be arrested for trespassing under Wisconsin State Statute 943.14.

Banning Policy will be reviewed by the library board and the library staff at least but not limited to every 3 years.

Next scheduled review: 2026
