

ORDINANCE NO. 2001-01

An Ordinance to Amend Chapter 2, Article IV, Division 2 (Planning Commission) of the Code of Ordinances for the Village of Ontonagon.

The Village of Ontonagon hereby ordains, that the existing Chapter 2 (Administration), Article IV (Boards and Commissions), Division 2 (Planning Commission) Section 2.102 (Members; appointment; compensation.) be deleted and replaced with the following:

"Sec 2-102. Members; appointment; compensation.

The Planning Commission shall consist of five (5) members who shall represent, so far as possible, different professions and occupations. Members of the planning commission shall be selected as follows:

- (1) Ex Officio members. One (1) member of the Village Board of Trustees, who shall be selected by Resolution of the village council, shall be an ex officio member of the planning commission, whose term shall correspond to the member's term of office as a member of the village council. Ex officio members shall receive no additional compensation for service on the planning commission. All ex officio members appointed under this subsection shall have full voting rights. The village council may remove the member selected by the village council for inefficiency, neglect of duty, or malfeasance in office.
- (2) Appointed members. The remaining four members shall be appointed by the village president, and shall be subject to approval of the village council by majority vote. The term of each appointed member shall be three (3) years or until his or her successor takes office, except that the terms of two of the members first appointed shall be for one (1) year, and two for two (2) years. An appointed member shall not hold another municipal office, except that one appointed member may be a member of the zoning board of adjustment or appeals. No appointed member shall receive compensation. After a public hearing, a member other than the member selected by the village council may be removed by the village president for inefficiency, neglect of duty, or malfeasance in office.
- (3) Vacancy in office. A vacancy on the planning commission occurring otherwise than through the expiration of term shall be filled for the unexpired term by the village president in the case of a member selected or appointed by the village president, or by the village council in the case of the member appointed by the village council."

This Ordinance shall take effect immediately upon publication.

Sec 2-102. Members; appointment; compensation.

The planning commission shall consist of five members who shall represent, so far as possible, different professions and occupations. Members of the planning commission shall be selected as follows:

- (1) Ex officio members. One member of the village board of trustees, who shall be selected by resolution of the village council, shall be an ex officio member of the planning commission, whose term shall correspond to the member(s) term of office as a member of the village council. Ex officio members shall receive no additional compensation for service on the planning commission. All ex officio members appointed under this subsection shall have full voting rights. The village council may remove the member selected by the village council for inefficiency, neglect of duty, or malfeasance in office.
- (2) Appointed members. The remaining four members shall be appointed by the village president, and shall be subject to approval of the village council by majority vote. The term of each appointed member shall be three years or until his or her successor takes office, except that the terms of two of the members first appointed shall be for one year, and two for two years. An appointed member shall not hold another municipal office, except that one appointed member may be a member of the zoning board of adjustment or appeals. No appointed member shall receive compensation. After a public hearing, a member other than the member selected by the village council may be removed by the village president for inefficiency, neglect of duty, or malfeasance in office.

- (3) Vacancy in office. A vacancy on the planning commission occurring otherwise than through the expiration of term shall be filled for the unexpired term by the village president in the case of a member selected or appointed by the village president, or by the village council in the case of the member appointed by the village council.
(Comp. Ords. 1984, § 104.02; Ord. No. 2001-01, 7-23-01)

Sec. 2-103. Oath of office; filing.

Every person appointed to the village planning commission shall, within eight days after receiving notice of such appointment, take and subscribe to the official oath of office and file the same with the village clerk.
(Comp. Ords. 1984, § 104.03)

Sec. 2-104. Officers; regulations; records; reports to council.

The village planning commission shall elect its own officers from amongst its members and create and fill such other offices and appoint such employees as it may deem necessary for its work, within the budgetary appropriations made for the planning commission by the village council. The chairman of the planning commission shall hold office for a term of one year and shall be eligible for reelection. The planning commission shall adopt such rules and regulations as necessary for the transaction of its business and shall keep a record of its resolutions, transactions, findings and determinations which record shall be a public record, and shall monthly submit to the village council a report of all expenditures made by the planning commission.
(Comp. Ords. 1984, § 104.04)

Sec. 2-105. Function; master plan.

It shall be the function and duty of the village planning commission to make and adopt a master plan for the physical development of the village, including any areas outside the boundaries of the village which, in the planning commission's judgment, bear relation to the planning of the village.
(Comp. Ords. 1984, § 104.05)

Sec. 2-106. Powers and duties.

All of the powers and duties set forth in Act No. 285 of the Public Acts of Michigan of 1931 (MCL 125.31 et seq.), as amended, are hereby granted to the village planning commission.
(Comp. Ords. 1984, § 104.06)

ADMINISTRATION

§ 2-123

Sec. 2-107. Submission of budget to village council.

Prior to April 1 of each year, the planning commission shall submit to the village council an estimate of the moneys deemed necessary for the operation of the planning commission.
(Comp. Ords. 1984, § 104.07)
