Town Review and Approval

The transfer of water rights shall not be final until reviewed and approved by the Fairfield Town Council, following verification by the Planning Commission that sufficient water is available for the proposed use and that the transfer complies with Town ordinances and the Town’s Water Policy.

Required Attachments:

- Original water Right certificate (or legal proof of ownership).
- Order of the State Engineer, permanent change Application.
- Copy of deed or proof of property ownership (if applicable).
- Signed transfer agreement between current and new shareholder.
- Application fee (as set by the current fee schedule).

Terms and Conditions:

- The transfer of water rights is subject to review and approval by the Town of Fairfield and must comply with all applicable Town codes and Utah state laws.
- The new Rightholder agrees to abide by all regulations governing water use within the Town of Fairfield.
- The Town reserves the right to deny or conditionally approve transfers based on water availability, system capacity, or other considerations in the public interest.
- The applicant understands that submission of this application does not guarantee approval and that additional documentation may be requested.
