

Chesnee Eagle Chase

Did you know there are eagles hidden around Chesnee? The Chesnee Eagle Chase gives you a fun experience exploring downtown Chesnee and hunting for eagles that are hidden on buildings/structures in the city.

There are currently 16 eagles throughout the downtown area of Chesnee for you to find, with more being added in the future!

We hope you enjoy this fun and interactive scavenger hunt and will share your photos with us on social media or use the hashtag #EagleChaseChesnee while you are out chasing eagles through Chesnee!

Here are the clues that will help you on your chase!

1. This eagle is perched at your 'Community Helper Headquarters' of the City, keeping Chesnee pretty!
2. This eagle is hanging out where history soars and there are 'relics' galore.
3. This eagle has a t-shirt collection that could span for miles! Spot his nest near black & white tiles and a mural as bold as her style.
4. You'll need to use your 'eye' to find Ebony Eagle. She blends in really well with her surroundings.
5. This eagle loves the outdoors! Take a shot and look for him from the roof to the floor.
6. This eagle took one Huck of a turn. He's perched outside, easy to discern.
7. This eagle keeps connected to her friends and family with this hometown provider. Phones, internet, and cable make her days brighter!

8. This eagle loves to browse the furniture, floors, and fridges for sale! There are beautiful pieces in every room, too many to tell!

9. From rows of crops to downtown charm, this merchant's roots grow deep on the farm. Look for the eagle where the circle meets the ground.

10. Follow the scent of coffee and blooms, where bright ideas fill the rooms.

11. This eagle stays close to this place most nights, he likes his hair high and tight.

12. This eagle is hanging out where the windows are always different and bright. She loves shopping for dresses in this shop at the light.

13. This eagle loves to look her best and give her feathers lots of care, so she's flown here for tanning and hair.

14. This eagle loves picnics and a quiet nature walk. You'll find him here enjoying his time listening to other birds talk!

15. Follow the scent of home-cooked meals and oven-baked sweets. The eagle has good taste!

16. Need a jolt to start your day? By George, the eagle waits that way!

We are so glad you participated in the Chesnee Eagle Chase! We hope you had fun and got to explore our great city in the process!

Final stop- Take this completed challenge to City Hall for a "Chesnee" Ornament!
