

Major 2014 Town Projects and Activities

1. A building committee was formed with 7 representatives from the board and planning commission, clerk, treasurer, and 5 residents.
2. The radio tower petition was presented
3. The new addition to the Rutland Center Cemetery was platted and named the Anthony Addition
4. Brooklyn Fire Department was incorporated.
5. Annual meeting in April and September. Attendance 150 and 200 respectively.
6. Roadwork--Starr School, reconstruct. Seal coat of Bigelow, Old Stone, W. Rutland, Oak Ridge. Culverts placed on Windmill
7. Dale Beske, Town Chair, resigned. Jeanette Walker, Supervisor, appointed to complete the term.
8. Mark Porter, Planning Commission Member, appointed to fill Jeanette Walker's Supervisor term.
9. Implements of Husbandry--no action which is going with state guidelines.
10. Joint meetings continue with the Oregon Fire/EMS and Quad Towns
11. Focus On Energy. New energy efficient lighting was installed in all town buildings. Cost $1500. After grants, the town paid $588.
12. Salt shed was approved at November meeting
13. Mueller property on Hwy 138 was rezoned to allow a landscaping business.
14. Upgrades to town hall include new garage door panels, back entry door, and gutters
15. The 2014 Annual Report is now included in the navigation section on the left side of this homepage.

Special note--the contract for the construction of a 40 x 50 sand/salt shed was awarded to Wood Construction on Monday, April 20, 2015. There were three sealed bids submitted. Tim Wood, owner of Wood Construction, was the low bidder and is a resident in the Town of Rutland. Construction will be completed by fall to accept delivery of sand and salt.