

Connect the Dots and Color

Eid al-Adha is a day to celebrate with family and friends and to remember the blessings of God in their lives. Muslims all around the world start the day with a congregational prayer. They pray five times a day.

