

The Nervous System

Instructions: Answer the following questions to learn more about the nervous system.

Define the nervous system and its primary function in the human body.

Name the two primary divisions of the nervous system and provide a brief explanation of their roles.

Describe the structure and function of neurons.

List the five main human senses and briefly explain how they are related to the nervous system.

Name two common brain disorders and briefly describe their symptoms and effects on the nervous system.

Draw a simple diagram of a neuron, labeling its key parts.