

National Hispanic Heritage Month

National Hispanic Heritage Month is a special time to celebrate the rich history, diverse cultures, and significant contributions of Hispanic and Latino Americans. The observance takes place from September 15th to October 15th each year, encompassing the independence anniversaries of several Latin American countries.

Hispanic Heritage Month provides an opportunity to _____ the various traditions, art, music, and languages that shape Hispanic culture. It is a time to honor the achievements of Hispanic individuals in various fields, including _____, science, politics, and sports.

During this month, schools, communities, and organizations host a wide range of _____ to showcase Hispanic heritage. Parades, concerts, dance performances, and art exhibits are organized to bring people together in celebration.

The origins of National Hispanic Heritage Month can be traced back to 1968 when President Lyndon B. Johnson signed a bill into law, authorizing a week-long celebration. In 1988, the observance was expanded to a month-long period, starting on September 15th, the _____ of independence for five Latin American countries: Costa Rica, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras, and Nicaragua.

Hispanic Heritage Month is an important time to recognize the impact of Hispanic Americans on the nation's history and culture. It encourages us to embrace diversity, learn about different cultures, and foster a sense of _____.

Word Bank:

events

anniversary

embrace

unity

literature

When does National Hispanic Heritage Month take place?

What does National Hispanic Heritage Month celebrate?

Why is it important to recognize the achievements of Hispanic individuals in various fields?

What is the significance of starting the observance on September 15th?

What are some of the events and activities organized during Hispanic Heritage Month?

	True	False
National Hispanic Heritage Month celebrates the history and contributions of Hispanic and Latino Americans.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Hispanic Heritage Month takes place from October 15th to November 15th.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
The observance includes the independence anniversaries of several Latin American countries.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
President Lyndon B. Johnson initiated National Hispanic Heritage Month in 1988.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Celebrating Hispanic Heritage Month fosters a sense of unity and diversity.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>