

Biography

Introduce the person being studied (who they are, what they are known for):

Describe the person's childhood and family background:

Share any big events or experiences that made a big impact on them:

Share any challenges they had to overcome to be successful:

Summarize the person's life and why they are important to learn about:

Explain why we can still learn from them today:

Share any thoughts or opinions you have about the person and their impact: