

THE SPACE TIMES

Date:

Journalist Name:

Help Captain T Add Name
(Textbox):

Save Planet Luna!

The Space Times has received reports, indicating that Captain  (add a voice comment in the space above) is currently stuck on Planet Solaroid!

Your help is needed to get our Captain back! This newspaper contains a series of challenges. Are you ready to help our Captain get back and save Planet Luna?

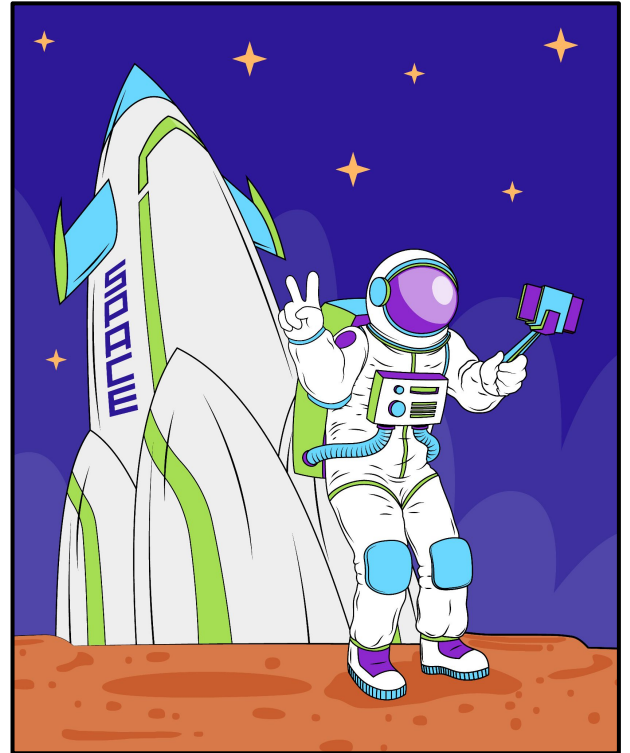

What do you think happened?

Use the Video Comment tool and explain why you think our Captain is currently stuck on Planet Solaroid:

And so, Your Challenge Begins...

Once upon a time, in the vast expanse of the cosmos, there was a fearless space captain named (T) . With (A) trusty starship, the Stardust Voyager, (A) roamed the galaxies, seeking adventure and helping those in need.

Use the Markup tool and highlight three important words in the paragraph above. Then use the Dictionary Tool to define each word:

Word

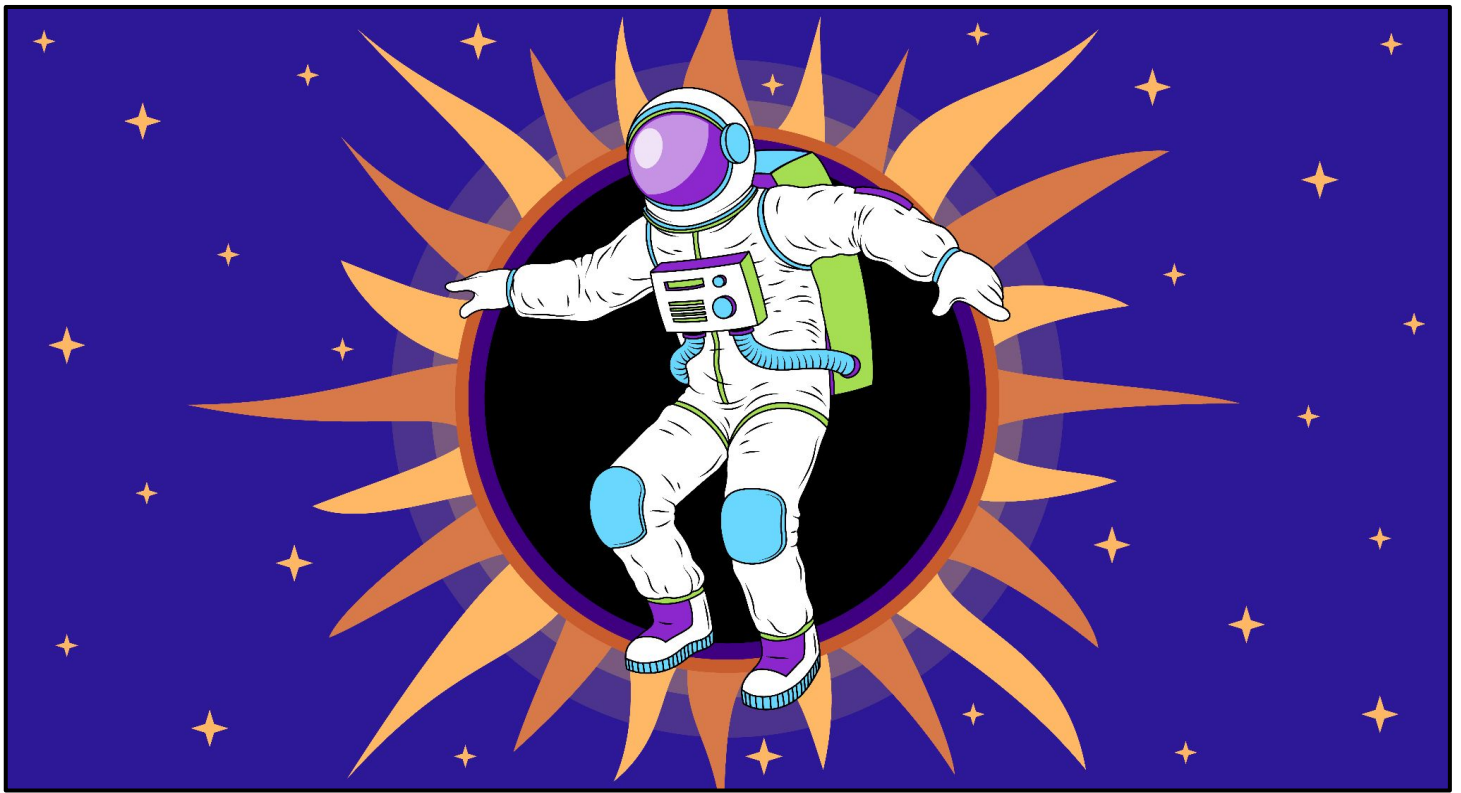

Definition

One fateful day, as our captain cruised through the cosmos, a distress call from a distant planet called Solaroid was received. Without hesitation, our captain set a course for the troubled planet, ready to lend a hand. Upon arrival, our captain discovered that Solaroid was in grave danger. Its sun, once bright and warm, was fading fast, plunging the planet into darkness and causing freezing cold temperatures. The inhabitants, known as Solarites, were in a state of panic and did not know what to do.

ADVERTISE IN THE SPACE TIMES

Use any Kami tools and create a cool poster, encouraging other Luna inhabitants to be on the lookout for our Captain's spaceship:

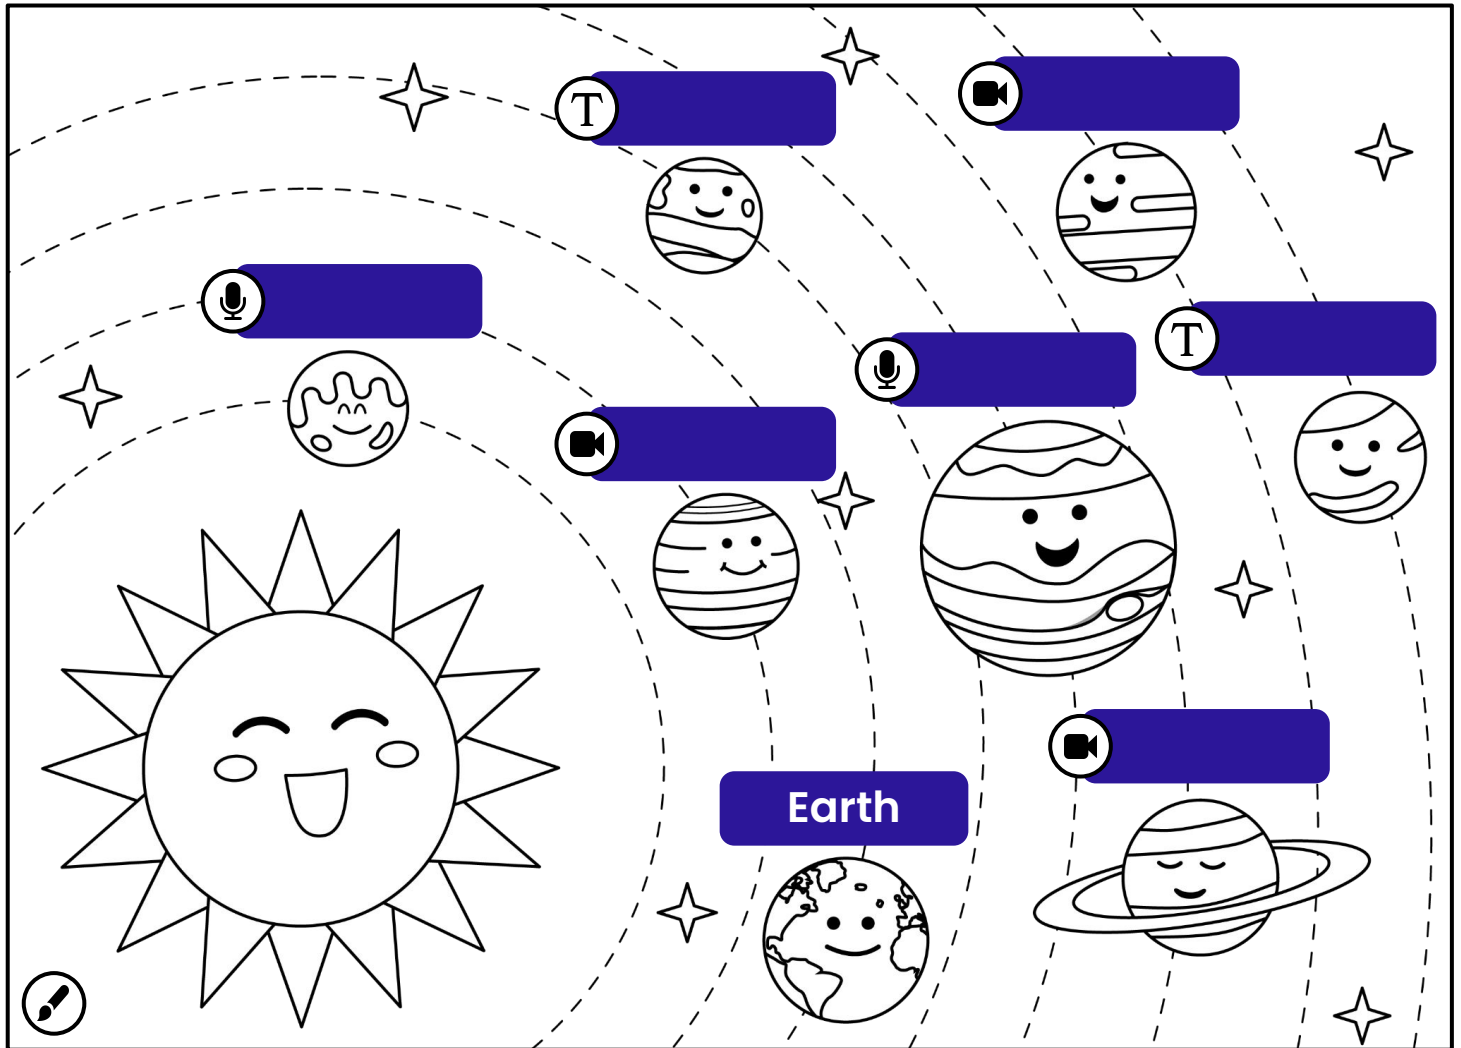

Determined to help, our captain leaped into action. But as  worked tirelessly to repair the solar generator that powered the sun, a sudden solar flare erupted...

Draw a picture of your paragraph:

Finish the next paragraph (make use of the Voice Typing tool:

Our captain had to fly past many planets in the solar system. Can you label the following planets? This picture needs a bit of colour too!

In the end, Captain (T) managed to...

Add your own conclusion - focus on a positive ending (use any Kami tools to complete this step):