

Online Safety Traffic Light: How Do You Feel?

Drag each statement to the appropriate traffic light (Red, Yellow, or Green) based on how you feel about its level of online safety.

I believe this statement poses a risk

I feel uncertain about this statement, use the Voice Comment Tool to explain why you feel this way

I agree with this statement

Posting your vacation photos while you are away from home.

Sharing your password with your best friend so they can log in to your account.

Using a strong and unique password for each online account.

Clicking on links in emails from unknown senders.

Sending mean comments or messages to someone you disagree with.

Reporting inappropriate content to a trusted adult or teacher.

Accepting friend requests from people you don't know in person.

Sharing your location with friends on social media.

Sharing your favorite hobbies and interests on your public profile.

Telling your online friends about your school's name and location.