Livingston, NJ 07039

- The city of Livingston lies along the western edge of Essex County and is just a 20-minute drive from Newark's Liberty International Airport and a 35-minute drive from New York City. The city's relative proximity to major business and commercial hubs has contributed to the area's considerable appeal amongst affluent white-collar suburban commuters.
- A number of major corporations maintain their corporate headquarters in Essex county including: Prudential, ADP, Dun & Bradstreet, Novadel-Agene, and Bradley Pharmaceuticals.
- Livingston Shopping Center is situated along the Route 10, which runs east/west through much of Essex and Morris counties. Route 10 is a critical commercial artery connecting several different suburbs including Summit, Morristown, and Montclair. This has made Route 10 one of the most desirable retail corridors in the area.
