1. Act in a professional manner at all times and represent the ABCRA to the highest principles and rules of the Association.

2. Promote and represent the ABCRA and rodeo in general in public and in/on any media platform (including social media) in a professional manner to the highest principles and rules of the Association.

3. Attend meetings and teleconferences throughout the year.

4. Assist committee and event secretary where required.

5. Ensure ABCRA official dress code is adhered to.

6. Point of contact to provide advice and guidance on ABCRA rules and Rodeo in general to all competitors, officials and any person acting in an employed or voluntary capacity at a rodeo.

7. Enforce the ABCRA event rules applicable to their representative event in a polite but firm and respectful manner.

8. Liaise and advise with judges where necessary and when requested on ABCRA Rules, Work Health and Safety and Animal Welfare issues.

   NOTE: Judges Decision is final. Upon dispute of a judges decision, MRC should liaise with Event Directors & judge to ensure correct decision is made and judges decision is final.

9. Report any breaches of the ABCRA's Code of conduct, Rules, Animal Welfare Code, Work Health and Safety issues to head office in writing immediately for appropriate consideration and action.

10. Consult with the Board of Directors as required.

11. Be available to assist and advise Event Directors & judges on any issue regarding any of the above.

12. Call on the assistance of Event Directors where necessary in making recommendations for personnel approval.

13. Encourage, mentor and foster young competitors.

14. Represent the ABCRA with a view to encourage the growth of ABCRA rodeos in not only their resided state/area but nationwide.

15. Prior to competition inspect their event respective stock, and ensuring they are healthy and sound. Report any issues to respective Event director & judges prior to competition.

I hereby agree to abide by the MRC Charter;

MRC Representative Name: …………………………………………………….

MRC Representative Signature: ……………………..

Date: ………./………./……...