

Tradition • Pride • Spirit

THE AUSTRALIAN BUSHMEN'S CAMPDRAFT & RODEO ASSOCIATION

COVIDSafe

COMMUNICATION PROCEDURES

All ABCRA sanctioned show attendees must remain educated on the current COVID-19 policies, and protocols for all ABCRA activities.

Communication to members and the general public will be available via:

1.1 Member and Affiliate email

All updates to policies and procedures will be emailed to financial ABCRA members and affiliates as necessary.

1.2 ABCRA Website www.abcra.com.au

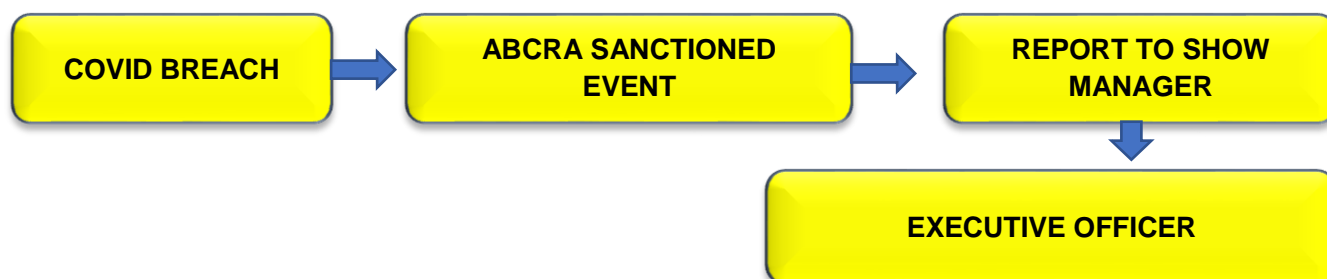

All updates to policies and procedures will be posted on web news as necessary.

The ABCRA website will feature the following documents publicly including:	ABCRA Affiliated Committees will have web access to the following:
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• ABCRA COVID-19 Safety plan• ABCRA COVIDSafe policy• ABCRA COVIDSafe policy summary• ABCRA COVIDSafe Show attendee Hygiene protocol• ABCRA COVIDSafe Communications procedures• ABCRA COVIDSafe Show attendee Health Declaration	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• ABCRA COVIDSafe Committee Cleaning protocols• ABCRA COVIDSafe Committee Sanitisation & Physical Distancing protocols• ABCRA COVIDSafe Committee Show application• ABCRA COVIDSafe Committee Record of Breach form• ABCRA COVIDSafe Committee Management of Unwell Attendee form• ABCRA COVIDSafe Committee Register of attendance

1.3 Official ABCRA Facebook page

Notification of updates to policies and procedures will be posted on the official ABCRA facebook page as necessary.

1.4 Reporting breaches of the ABCRA CovidSafe policies or protocols

1.5 Mental Health & Wellbeing resources

ABCRA encourages the use of Mental health and wellbeing resources located on the Health Direct website