RODANN ROANIES CHEX "Roanie" was the last foal born from CLOVER FOXY LADY Q-2819. DOC'S SPINIFEX Q-5015, whose contribution to the Quarter Horse industry in Australia, needs no introduction.

Animal Pedigree

“Roanie” was broken in by Will Kehl of Springsure in 1997 and started by Rod Carpenter in some local Snaffle Bit competitions and one Campdraft before Pete Comiskey loaded her on his truck.

"Roanie" joined the PJ Comiskey team in 2000 and began a successful career that spanned 14 years. Pete has described her as a perfect type and with the temperament to withstand 14 years of intense competition and travel, tough, but sensitive.

Her first draft with Pete she won the AQHA Super Series in Tamworth and won the Novice Draft at Wondoan on the way home from there.

In 2001 she broke Open in style, winning three drafts under three different judges in the same weekend at Wowan — Novice, Open and Restricted Open.

She went on to win 65 drafts, 221 ribbons and four horse titles (Novice Horse and Open Horse in 2002, two Open Horse titles in 2006 and 2007).

Some of her larger achievements are: -

2000 - Winner AQHA Super Series

2002 - ACA Novice Horse of the Year

2002 -ACA Open Horse of the Year

2005 -Winner Chinchilla Grandfather Clock

2005 - Winner Warwick Gold Cup

2006 -ACA Open Horse of the Year

2006 - Winner Paradise Lagoons Open

2007 -ACA Open Horse of the Year
