PRESIDENT REPORT 2024

RICKY GLEN - PRESIDENT CATTLE & TIMED EVENTS PORTFOLIO

Dear Members,

Well the 2024 nationals are done and dusted, huge entries had us going to a second judge that the board approved without hesitation and the rest is history. I would like to thank the members for supporting the nationals in the way they did, by all reports it was well received and most had a successful show, even those who did not make the winners circle gave glowing reports of the show and I must thank the show team and those who helped out over the time to ensure it was a great success.

There will be a de brief for the board at the June board meeting so we can set in motion planning for the 2025 nationals well in advance.

The cutting entries were huge with 150 pre works on the Friday and this was followed by two full days of cutting with up to 55 horses in some classes.

The reports on the show on face book were increased this year with the marketing team in full swing and I am sure this will further increase in 2025.

I look forward to bringing you updates on things to come for the 2025 Nationals.

The new rule book will come out this year with all rule changes in place and each financial member will receive their new book. As always, this will also be available on our web site as well.

The 2024/25 youth committee will be elected shortly and the youth had a successful auction held at the Nationals with over $7000.00 being raised.

Please support the upcoming youth stallion auction coming up to raise further monies for programs to support the AQHA youth, if you would like to donate a breeding to your stallion, contact the office or the youth convenor Liz Keating direct.

Budgets will be set for the 2024/25 year at the June board meeting as well so the portfolio holders will be putting forward their wish lists for endorsement by the board.

Don't forget that breeding returns and registrations are due as of 31st May this year so get them in on time to avoid penalties.

Also please update date any tests that are required on your stallions or mares of breeding age, if your unsure what tests are outstanding on your horses, please contact the office direct.

The free Amateur clinics sponsored by the AQHA Amateur division have been well supported with these being held in most states of Australia.

The Pro Horseman division of the AQHA have also been active in having clinics for their members and this will continue into 2025.

The AQHA Judges division will be hosting a seminar in Victoria coming up with the last one being held in Qld which was a great success.

In closing, I would like to again thank the AQHA board in the support they have given me and its through our reports to members which I intend to keep you all well informed what's going on.

With thanks
Ricky Glen

NIKITA NOAKES

'A Fire from Within'

FROM SERIOUS INJURY, AROSE SERIOUS DETERMINATION . . .

WORDS BY: LYN HOFFMANN ©2024 ★ PHOTOS BY: MEL CRUDEN / ACE PHOTOGRAPHY / TANIA HOBBS

Nikita Noakes loved horses and knew she wanted to ride after watching both her grandfather and her mother, Justine Jones, with theirs.

Her first Quarter horse Navan GBH Monty, was agisted with Bernard McAneney, who taught Nikita and her Mum about Western riding and showing.

'We attended Pauline Stuart-Fox clinics at Winderadeen, and I enjoyed all-round Youth classes, winning my first buckle in Youth Trail with Monty. My next Youth horse, RQH Whats Up Doc, or Buggy, aided two Trans-Tasman Challenge selections. Buggy memories include a prestige buckle & trophy from America, for AmQHA International Rookie of the Year.'

Then came Nikita's heart horse, RQH Cee A Dream. Sid and Nikita were competitive during her last Youth years, and a powerhouse team in her early Amateur years.

'Sadly, we lost Sid a few years ago. Losing my best friend was the hardest time of my career. Sid had the biggest heart and gave me his all. We won many High Points and shared a bond many can only dream of.'

Nikita's love for showing stems from her bond with horses and the ability to showcase the horse's trust and training in competition. She's won many classes, Overall Highpoints, EOY Highpoints, and also High Point Youth and Amateur of NSW numerous times, proudly displaying her buckle and garland collections at home. She's missed only one AQHA Nationals since 2011.

'In December, 2017, just weeks after my 21st, a serious fall off my young horse broke my back. My break was two-thirds across my vertebrae. Doctors explained that if it'd gone right through, hitting my spinal cord, I'd be in a wheelchair for life. It was traumatic, and no-one knew if I'd ever ride again. That mental uncertainty was the hardest part of my recovery. Bedridden for 6 weeks, in pain, and only able to walk from bed to bathroom and back, I wore my back-brace, until April, 2018, only removing it when in bed. Mum made a 'pillow fort' either side of me to keep me still. My rehab and recovery program was intense, and learning to walk again was a long process. Looking after me 24/7, prevented Mum from going to work. It was tough, with a flow on affect to those around me. Numerous times a week, to gain strength, I attended physiotherapy, used an exercise ball, and did water aerobics with my grandmother. Mum and her best friend Gai, did everything for me, including my showering and dressing—quite embarrassing for a 21yo. But I'm so grateful for them helping me back to independence. Passion and determination to ride was the motivation that also helped me through.'

Nikita's specialist appointment, a week before Q18 Nationals, included her final x-ray. Getting the all-clear, she asked if she could ride again. Doctors said there was no certainty, and all was dependant on her rehab success and strength. Knowing riding was possible lit a fire of determination in Nikita. The following weekend she asked her Mum to bring another horse down to her. She had to get straight back on or it may never happen.

Nikita and Tommy - Western Pleasure

Nikita and Tommy - Trail

'My loss of confidence after the accident affected Mum, too. I was okay at Q18, while in the mindset of competition, but when we turned the horses out during winter, overcoming the mental hurdle to get back on was difficult. It was like learning to ride again. It's taken time to overcome that fear of getting hurt on a horse again, but that re-connection and horsemanship was a ride-by-ride process. Currently, I've paired with CP Faith Abounds, aka Dee, and our latest champion, How About Me, aka Tommy. As beautiful as they are individual, Tommy and Dee have helped regain my confidence, happiness and competitive edge. After Sid, I'd doubted that would happen, but I like to think he watches over us all.'

Dee and Tommy continuously remind Nikita to practise good listening and intuition—an everyday challenge of both physical and mental strength. The wisdom, patience, trust and connection to the horse is what she loves. Since her accident she's worked hard to enjoy the journey, releasing her of the pressure of titles and accolades. Instead she focuses on her knowledge and happiness, to be involved and to show up daily.

Nikita and Bailey - Western Pleasure

Nikita and Sid - Western Pleasure

'If you know - you know.
My love for each horse,
with their unique personality, has had an amazing impact on my life'

**“

'A highlight recently, was spending 6 months in the USA, living with Karen and Ty Hornick. I gratefully increased my training knowledge, learned new skills, and made lifelong friends. The enjoyable experience allowed me to visit the NSBA, Congress and the AQHA World Show. Watching the world's best horses competing was amazing, but the once in a lifetime opportunity to ride A Certain Vino still gives me goose bumps!'

Returning from injury is tough. Nikita's advice is to slow down, take your time, learn from it and slowly build your confidence in each process.

'There are no expectations on how or when you get back in the saddle—only that you do try. Understand that setbacks occur—it takes time to heal. Embrace the changes, even if it means things may never totally be the same. For anyone who's been physically injured, I'd encourage you to work hard on your recovery. That was critical to my recovery, but each person's journey is different.'

Nikita's humbly proud of her achievements, her buckles, and her lope in the sunset that no-one saw. Training her horses helped develop special bonds with each one.

Nikita and Dee - Western Pleasure

'If you know—you know. My love for each horse, with their unique personality, has had an amazing impact on my life. I've met amazing people while showing and will cherish great memories. My Mum, my show family and friends are the motivation, fun and definition of what showing's all about. Thanks to everyone for everything they've done, offered and shown me. I look forward to every show season as we all continue to ride this crazy adventure called life.'

MAKING INFORMED DECISIONS WHEN BREEDING

waiting for that beautiful foal to be born - how fantastic will this be.

AFEW IMPORTANT ITEMS TO CHECK FOR THE STALLION:

Does the IBF box have YES? If not, then the stallion has not been recognised by the AQHA as a breeding sire and means that you could have a problem with your foal being registered, you can check with the AQHA Office 02 6762 6444, the stallion may be in the process of having its IBF completed.

Is the current owner a financial member of the AQHA and therefore eligible to lodge breeding returns for this stallion? Check with the AQHA as above.

GENETIC TESTS FOR HORSES

What are the genetic test results showing for this stallion and does your mare have genetic results on file also if any of the following tests are applicable.

The below is lengthy but it is important that you are kept informed and can make your own decisions on breeding.

HERDA: Hereditary equine regional dermal asthenia is an inherited skin condition that is characterized by hyperextensible skin, scarring and severe lesions along the back of affected horses.

- Horses with N/N genotype will not have hereditary equine regional dermal asthenia and cannot transmit this hereditary equine regional dermal asthenia variant to their offspring.

- Horses with N/HRD genotype will not be affected by hereditary equine regional dermal asthenia, but are carriers. They may transmit this hereditary equine regional dermal asthenia variant to 50% of their offspring.
- Matings between two carriers result in a 25% chance of producing an affected foal.
- Horses with HRD/HRD genotype will have hereditary equine regional dermal asthenia. These horses are not registerable with the AQHA.

OLWS (LWO): Lethal white overo is a genetic disorder that results from two copies of the version of the gene causing the frame overo coat colour pattern.

- Horses with N/N genotype will not have the overo pattern and cannot transmit this lethal white overo variant to their offspring.
- Horses with N/CAR (N/O) genotype will have the overo pattern and are carriers. They may transmit this lethal white overo variant to their offspring.
- Matings with N/N horses will result in a 50% chance of producing an overo foal.
- Matings with between two carriers will result in a 25% chance of producing a lethal white foal.
- Horses with O/O genotype will have LWO, a condition incompatible with life.

HYPP: Hyperkalemic periodic paralysis (HYPP) is characterized by sporadic attacks of muscle tremors (shaking or trembling), weakness, and/or collapse. Attacks can also be accompanied by loud breathing noises resulting from paralysis of the muscles of the upper airway. Occasionally, sudden death can occur following a severe paralytic attack, presumably from heart failure or respiratory muscle paralysis.

Manifestation of clinical signs of HYPP depends on many factors including stress, diet, and changes in exercise. Some horses may manifest severe signs of the disease while others exhibit little or no signs.

- Horses with N/N genotype will not have hyperkalemic periodic paralysis and cannot transmit this hyperkalemic periodic paralysis variant to their offspring.

- Horses with N/H genotype can display episodes of hyperkalemic periodic paralysis and are Carriers. They may transmit this hyperkalemic periodic paralysis variant to 50% of their offspring.

- Horses with H/H genotype can display episodes of hyperkalemic periodic paralysis and typically are more severely affected. They will transmit this hyperkalemic periodic paralysis variant to all of their offspring.

- HYPP carriers are not registerable with the AQHA unless spayed or gelded.

PSSM1: Horses with Type 1 Polysaccharide Storage Myopathy (PSSM1) have a muscle disease characterized by accumulation of abnormal complex sugars (glycogen) in skeletal muscles. The accumulation of abnormal sugars can cause breakdown of muscle fibers (rhabdomyolysis) which leads to muscle pain, weakness, skin twitching, sweating, and reluctance to move.

- Horses with N/N genotype will not have type 1 Polysaccharide Storage Myopathy and cannot transmit the PSSM1 variant to their offspring.
- Horses with N/PSSM1 genotype will have the PSSM1 variant and may show signs of type 1 disease. Horses with this genotype may transmit the PSSM1 variant to 50% of their offspring.
- Horses with PSSM1/PSSM1 genotype are homozygous for the PSSM1 variant and may be more severely affected than N/PSSM1 horses. Horses with this genotype will transmit the PSSM1 variant to all of their offspring.

MH: Malignant hyperthermia (MH) is an inherited disease in which affected horses can be triggered by halogenated anesthetics, succinylcholine, stress, or excitement, which can induce a hyper-metabolic state characterized by symptoms including muscle contracture, elevated temperature, and an irregular heart rhythm.

- Horses with N/N genotype will not have malignant hyperthermia and cannot transmit this malignant hyperthermia variant to their offspring.
- Horses with N/MH genotype will be affected by malignant hyperthermia. They can transmit this malignant hyperthermia variant to their offspring. Matings with N/N genotype will result in a 50% chance of producing a malignant hyperthermia-affected foal.
- Horses with MH/MH genotype will have malignant hyperthermia.

GBED: Glycogen branching enzyme deficiency (GBED) is a fatal genetic disorder that results from the inability to correctly store glycogen in several organs of the body.

- Horses with N/N genotype will not have glycogen branching enzyme deficiency and cannot transmit this glycogen branching enzyme deficiency variant to their offspring.

- Horses with N/GBED genotype will not be affected by glycogen branching enzyme deficiency, but are carriers. They may transmit this GBED variant to 50% of their offspring.

- Matings between two carriers result in a 25% chance of producing a GBED-affected foal.

- Horses with GBED/GBED genotype will have glycogen branching enzyme deficiency, a fatal condition.

MYHM: Myosin-heavy chain myopathy (MYHM) is a muscle disease that results in two distinct clinical disease presentations, immune-mediated myositis (IMM) and non-exertional rhabdomyolysis. Both presentations involve muscle loss or damage and are linked to the same genetic variant.

- Horses with N/N genotype will not have increased susceptibility for a myosin-heavy chain myopathy and cannot transmit the MYHM variant to their offspring.
- Horses with N/My genotype may develop a myosin heavy chain myopathy. They may transmit this MYHM variant to 50% of their offspring. Matings to horses with the N/N genotype will result in a 50% chance of producing a foal that may develop myosin-heavy chain myopathy.
- Horses with My/My genotype may develop a more severe form of a myosin-heavy chain myopathy. They will transmit this MYHM variant to all of their offspring.

CARMYLE VETERINARY SERVICES, QUIPOLLY

WORDS BY: LYN HOFFMANN ©2024 ★ PHOTOS BY: CARMYLE VETERINARY SERVICES

Carmyle Veterinary Services is a busy facility, stunningly located overlooking the Quipolly Dam, south of Tamworth, in NSW. The property consists of 1,000 hectares of well-tended hill paddocks and pastures, where the large Carmyle herd of recipient mares run.

Head Veterinarian, Dr Alan Simson, best known to all as Al purchased the property in 2011, with his wife, Shelley, leading to the beginning of Carmyle. Today, with up to 400 recip mares on the property, Al's son, Will, spends many hours on the pre-season preparation of the paddocks, and pasture improvement. Will's careful management contributes greatly to the overall health of these mares.

'Our Recip Program predominately uses Thoroughbred and Standardbred mares for the embryos taken from performance mares, consisting of showjumpers, dressage, cutting, stock and pleasure mares. We find it best to run the recip mares in larger paddocks— we have the space to keep them, which means more mares to choose from when transferring an embryo, and this allows me to achieve the best transfer rate. It's also important to match the recip mare with the donor mare, based on cycling. We have smaller paddocks and stable agistment for client mares, and excellent stallion accommodation. Most importantly, I'm very lucky to have such a good, dedicated and hard-working team, and as a team, we're constantly evolving Carmyle to run the recip mares, creating the right movement and safety.'

The Carmyle services within the equine reproduction program include artificial insemination, embryo flushing and embryo transfer.

The breeding facilities and a basic laboratory are set up to handle stallion semen, and semen storage. Carmyle have the facilities to stand stallions, to collect and evaluate semen, collect and AI, cool ship Australia-wide, freeze and ship, or store. When it comes to stallion management at Carmyle, Al says. 'The services include collection of fresh semen for shipping, insemination and freezing, and Epididymal semen freezing, which is when semen is flushed from the epididymis and frozen.'

'In 2012, a Quarter Horse stallion unfortunately had to be put down at another clinic. The clinic castrated and shipped the testicles to us, and we flushed and froze the semen. Because of that procedure, there are now 11 foals on the ground from that Epididymal frozen semen.'

The Carmyle team also focus on lameness issues, using X-ray and Endoscopic examination, equine sports medicine, lameness work and rehabilitation.

DECADES OF LEARNING

Alan Simson graduated from Sydney University in 1976, with a Bachelor of Veterinary Science (BVSc) & 1982 MACVSc (Equine Medicine), and never stopped wanting to learn.

'In 1977, I started as a Veterinary Assistant at Mildura Vet Hospital, Victoria, full of knowledge and enthusiastic, but lacking professional and people skills. In 1978, to specialise in horses, I moved to Scone as Veterinary Assistant and made Partner, with Morgan, Howey & Fraser, now Scone Equine Hospital. I achieved growth in my skills, competence, and expertise under the guidance of renowned vets, Bill Howey and John Morgan. I later worked two seasons in Newmarket Equine UK, became Head Assistant in my 2nd year there, then did one season at Hagyard.'

PROFESSIONAL EVENT APPOINTMENTS

- 2000 Olympics – Assistant Veterinarian
- Show Jumping & Three-Day Event competition.
- 2001 Melbourne & 2017 Sydney – World Cup Polo
- Chief Vet & Horse Welfare Officer.
- Al has been appointed Senior Equine Vet at Sydney Royal Easter Show under the RT Hon Mark Schembri Esq. at various times.

1989 - 2010 ELLERSTON

Offered the Senior Veterinarian position at Ellerston to look after Kerry Packer’s 700 horses and 11,000 head of cattle on 5 properties, a gentleman’s handshake sealed the deal, and Kerry’s brief to Al was, ‘No one bats a thousand, son.’ He expected the best one could do. Then, the Packer family were still enjoying their Quarter Horse operation, managed by Fred Johnson, with notable AQHA stallions being Cuttabars Colonel Q-15686 and Isle B San Q-2840.

‘We built a state-of-the-art veterinary clinic,’ Al recalls. ‘Kerry named it the Onassis Hilton, after his favourite polo mare, and produced international polo ponies through ET that competed in the British Open Polo to win three times and also played in the Argentine Open. Ellerston was an exceptional home for myself, Shelley, and our son, Will, and daughter, Sarah.’

‘Dad is passionate about what he does, and each year, attends National and World Veterinary Conferences to increase his knowledge and modernise his abilities. He not only has a great love for learning and horses, but for all animals really.’

Al’s daughter, Sarah Bailey

While Al is proud of what he’s achieved, he feels extremely privileged and grateful for working with different Vets from overseas and throughout Australia. Many vets have interned with Al, wanting to expand their knowledge and skills, and have since gone on to continue a career in repro work.

‘During breeding season,’ Al explains. ‘We have students from different veterinary universities intern here, and I enjoy teaching them. It’s important for our profession to give them hands on experience. I've been very fortunate throughout each breeding season to also be working with my long-time friend and colleague, Dr Selena Sylvester. The Carmyle team have bred AQHA Futurity winners, and some notable Australian-based stallions, as well as the filly who topped Nutrien Sale. Two Warwick Cup winners and many international prize-winning polo ponies have also crossed our books.'

Al says he has great appreciation of the many clients that support their services - clients that have been with them from day one.

'Every breeding season, I love welcoming our new clients. I learn from them, as I hope they learn from me. I couldn't do without my incredible team, and love having my family working alongside me, as well as some local kids (adults in their 20s) and colleagues all who share our love and appreciation of horses. I consider myself a fortunate man. I get up every morning, go to a job I love doing and work with the animals I love.'

CLAIRVEAUX QUARTER HORSES

BETTER BE REDDY

A1-13111

WORDS BY: LYN HOFFMANN ©2024 ★ PHOTOS BY: TANIA HOBBS

Originally from a little town called Bothwell, in the cold, often snowy Central Highlands of Tasmania, Wayne and Pam Jones have faithfully bred Quarter Horses and shown at the Nationals for close on 20 years!

'Our Tassie property, Clairveaux, was one of a cluster of farms owned by Wayne's family,' Pam begins. 'His father had racehorses and Wayne, who was always involved there, took over Clairveaux when he was in his 20's. We lived there for another 25 years. Wayne eventually bought more ground, and we ran sheep, cattle and a few horses for work. We used to drive sheep and cattle to the lake country. We'd drive them along the road with our horses and that would take us a long but interesting six days.'

Pam had always loved Quarter Horses, especially palominos. She loved the AQHA stallion, Rule Breakin, from Lord Ben Farms, so when the 3yo palomino colt, Playin By The Rules, came up for sale through Greg McNamara, she and Wayne flew up to Cobbity, NSW, to look at him.

'I just loved him. He had the most amazing temperament, so we bought him and took him back to Tasmania, and that's basically how we started with Quarter Horses. We took Playin By The Rules to a few all-breed shows, and someone suggested we also take him to some AQHA shows. So, we took him to a 'B' Class Quarter Horse Show and were hooked! We bought some AQHA broodmares and made Clairveaux our stud name and prefix. We seriously began breeding and have been loyal AQHA members ever since. As a point of interest, Playin By The Rules is actually still with us at the age of 26!'

The couple started to attend the AQHA Shows in Tassie and would always try to head over for the three big shows every year. Pam explains that it would cost them around $3,000 per trip, just to get over that stretch of water and back.

'When we started getting older, the kids weren't that interested in the farm, so we decided it was time for us to semi-retire and make the move to the mainland. We sold up and six years ago settled on a property at Harston, Victoria, where we re-established Clairveaux Quarter Horses.'

Inspired, Pam then did her AI Course through the Melbourne University, at one of the University's former campuses, located at Glen Ormiston. Pam now does all of their own breeding, and she and Wayne do all of their own repro work. She says they started using frozen semen from some great stallions, and it all just snowballed from there.

'We went over to the 2019 AQHA World Show, and Kristy and Kyle Mobberley also went over. I love Hunter horses, so our intentions were to purchase a good, young Hunter Under Saddle mare, with the idea of getting some embryos from her. Kyle and Kristy knew Nancy-Sue Ryan, who owned the Congress Champion HUS performer and sire, Good Better Best A2- 3609. At 16.3hh, the stunning stallion excelled in Hunter classes during his standout debut at the 2017 All American Quarter Horse Congress. He won the Congress Championship for 3-Year-Old Non-Pro Hunter Under Saddle and a Reserve Congress Championship for Open 3-Year-Old Hunter Under Saddle, and has already sired multiple champions.'

Visiting Nancy's Texas property to look at mares in foal to Good Better Best, they saw weanlings in various paddocks, and a big yard full of weanling colts.

'We didn't want a colt, but looking at them, one sorrel colt stood out. Nancy's partner, Larry Hansch, a great horseman and judge, spoke to us about that colt and said that if he was looking, that'd be the one he'd choose. We then talked about the colt's dam, Boys Move Over, and what she had won was just incredible!'

An absolutely beautiful, talented 16.3hh black AQHA mare, Boys Move Over, 5425653, is 2 x AQHA World Champion HUS, 2 x Bronze WC, NSBA Champion & Reserve NSBA Champion, 2 x Reserve Congress Champion & Highpoint NSBA in HUS & AQHA Highpoint HUS mare, as well as a multiple Congress & NSBA and Champion producer.

'But we were undecided and went home without a horse. We spoke about things, and we soon realised that Australia needed a great Hunter colt, and I wanted one to show. Larry also carries great general performance lines, so it made huge sense to import that colt! After his long trip, he arrived at Christmas, 2019, an ugly, gangly yearling, and we hoped that would change. We stable-named him Larry, after Larry Hansch, and he's since turned into a big, beautiful horse, with a magic temperament!'

Just like each of his parents, Better Be Ready has started his show career off in an exciting way, and already looks like he'll be a force to be reckoned with in Hunter Under Saddle. Recently, at the 2024 AQHA National Show, Pam showed Larry under two USA Judges and he took out the Q24 National Champion Amateur Performance Stallion from four exhibitors, and the Q24 National Champion Amateur Performance Stallion. Pam then saddled up to show Larry and win the AmQHA Select Hunter Under Saddle, from a class of 17. Excitingly, they followed this up when they took out the Amateur Hunter Under Saddle and the Select Amateur Hunter Under Saddle.

'We then got to watch Kristy Mobberly show Larry to take the Reserve National Champion Senior Hunter Under Saddle. They then returned to the show pen to win the National Champion AmQHA Hunter Under Stallion All Age! Kristy showed him to perfection and it was so exciting to see him move the way he did!'

Pam and Wayne plan to take Larry to NPHA, for the Hunter Under Saddle and Hunter In Hand classes. The Jones' would like to sincerely thank Kyle & Kristy Mobberley for all their help and support with Better Be Reddy. With the breeding season approaching exciting things are definitely expected!

PRACTICE THE PATTERN

WORDS BY: LYN HOFFMANN © 2024 ★ PHOTOS BY: EV LAGOON

You'll find Hunter In Hand a challenging and enjoyable led English pattern class. If you love showing in other English disciplines, it may be an inviting class for you. It often attracts good numbers, and can play a part in deciding High Point Awards at the end of a show.

Regardless of any equine competition, one should set a high standard of professionalism from the time of entering the show arena, to the time of leaving, and the Hunter In Hand class is no exception. As always, a pleasing first impression speaks volumes on your manners and overall attention to presentation. A Judge will be looking for a confidently & correctly executed Hunter In Hand pattern. Required tack, attire and class procedure are clearly noted in the AQHA Rulebook, and must be adhered to.

Exhibitors will be scored: 70% on Movement, 20% on Conformation, 10% on Temperament.

THE HUNTER IN HAND CLASS

The Hunter In Hand class is designed to evaluate the suitability of your horse for the Hunter Under Saddle class. It's an in-hand movement class, with a set pattern, for the performance horse, namely Hunter-type horses. You can show any horse in HIH, however, an ideal prospect would have similar attributes to that of a good Hunter Under Saddle horse. The HIH Pattern is shown in this article, and in the AQHA Rulebook.

Prepare your horse as you would a Halter class. You may band or plait the mane and forelock, and may also plait the tail. Check the AQHA Rulebook to ascertain what equipment you'll need to show your HIH horse in, depending upon its age. Your HIH attire should be as per the rulebook.

Study the AQHA Rulebook on how you will be scored, and how a penalty or disqualification is applied. This in itself can help you achieve credits or avoid penalties, subsequently giving you the chance to improve your overall score. Refer to the AQHA Rulebook often while practicing at home, essential if you want to become a more effective and successful competitor.

BE AWARE OF THE PENALTIES

- Knocking or knocking over a marker or cone.
- Fall of horse or exhibitor.
- Touching the bit or the chain.
- Break of gait – An appropriate penalty will be assessed at the Judge's discretion for a break of gait up to 2 strides, but does not constitute off-pattern or immediate disqualification.

BE AWARE OF THE DISQUALIFICATIONS

Off Pattern

- Completing triangles in the incorrect order.
- Not displaying the correct gait.
- Not submitting to an inspection prior to completing the pattern.

Your HIH class will begin with you presenting your horse to the Judge for evaluation on conformation and presentation. You'll show your horse in hand, at the Walk and Trot, with movement a Judge would expect from a good Hunter Under Saddle horse. Judging requirements place emphasis on the workout, the movement, manners and presentation of the horse.

As for the Hunter In Hand workout itself, you must show your horse as true to Hunter Under Saddle movement as possible. As a competitor, you should travel through the HIH triangle pattern, showing your horse at the required gaits of walk and trot, performing in a correct, balanced and obedient manner. Strive to demonstrate a smooth, forward flowing, quality of movement from your horse, while displaying cadence, rhythm, and a good attitude, staying in control at all times.

PRACTICE THE HUNTER IN HAND PATTERN AT HOME

- Set up your 5 cones as below. Set up a small triangle, going into a larger triangle.
- NOTE: Length of each side of small triangle must be 10 metres.
- NOTE: Length of each side of large triangle must be 20 metres.
- Horses will be judged individually on the triangle pattern, as shown below.
- This is the only Hunter in Hand pattern used.

Ask a friend or family member to pretend to be the Judge while you practice. If you're practicing alone, imagination is a must, so pretend that a Judge is right there and use similar time-frames to help you and your horse to relax! Study, learn and know the HIH pattern well. Practice to be more aware of the cones, to keep your lines straight and to make sure that before you begin, you've given your horse enough room to get around those tight corners with ease.

LET'S BEGIN

1. Walk your horse, to stand, prior to cone 'A'. Stand your horse parallel with your first line of travel 'A' to 'B' (See illustration.) This will help to add to your demonstration of a neat run all round. Set your horse up for inspection in the 'open position' (e.g. all four legs of the horse visible by a Judge standing on either side of the horse.) Stand still during inspection, front & slightly left of the horse's head.
2. At a show, your horse's conformation, condition and presentation is considered, as is showmanship and the condition and legality of your attire and gear.

Although a practice situation, make sure to use the correct headgear on your horse, so that he's accustomed to it.

3. The Judge will approach to inspect your horse from the front, rear and either side. Once the Judge has finished inspecting your horse, a nod, or 'thank you' from them will normally indicate that you begin your pattern.

4. COMPLETE THE SMALL TRIANGLE - A, B, C, A.

Walk forward to complete your first triangle, ensuring that your horse's walk is ground-covering, shows forward movement and is straight and true. It also needs to be a good ground-covering gait. It should be balanced and the speed should be even and movement, rhythmic. Be mindful of the cones—do not travel too close to them, nor turn around them too sharply—as you do not want to knock them over.

5. CONTINUE ON, TO COMPLETE THE LARGE TRIANGLE - A, D, E, A.

Once back to A, you should continue with forward movement around the cone, to then move immediately into a good medium trot from A to D, moving into a good medium trot from D to E and a good medium trot from E to A. Again, this gait should be balanced and the movement, rhythmic. To complete the pattern, go past cone A, and finish with an accurate, obedient and square halt.

6. Imagine that if the Judge was there, you'd need to acknowledge them with a nod, and then promptly but quietly leave the workout area, to line-up in the designated place in the arena.

A FEW TIPS

- Move your horse out well, making the transition from walk to trot as smooth and soft as you can.
- Work around each corner as close and neat as you can, and, as you run, keep your hands up and your arms as still as possible (don't flap them). Don't look down & don't drop your hands.
- This is an English Hunter style class, so unlike a western horse, neither gait is flat or slow. The horse should be shown as a true English Hunter horse, moving out smoothly and cleanly.
- A Judge wants to see responsiveness, engagement, obedient transitions, a good attitude from the horse and the handler, and an obvious change of gaits exactly where asked for in the pattern.

Practice your pattern as much as you need, but don't overdo it, as you don't want your horse to become sour. If you are a beginner in this class, be sure to watch the more experienced exhibitors and their horses competing, as this will definitely give you a greater insight into the class!

WEANING PRESENTS SOME WINDOWS OF OPPORTUNITY – ONCE IN A LIFETIME CHANCES TO PROTECT FUTURE SOUNDNESS, ACHIEVE GENETIC POTENTIAL AND REDUCE THE RISK OF ‘STABLE VICIES’.

‘Stable vices’ also known as ‘stereotypies’ are repetitive, seemingly purposeless behaviours such as cribbing, windsucking and weaving. Now recognised as a ‘disease of domestication’, because they have never been observed in free-living and feral horses, they occur in 15-40% of domesticated horses. Weaning as a critical point in development of oral stereotypies - over 65% of wind-suckers and crib-biters develop the habit within one month of weaning - the same time as diet and environment change. Weaning leaves foals vulnerable to the development of stereotypies and management methods that cause chronic stress are now recognised as the major risk factors.

Crucial in their occurrence are feeds with NSC (starch + sugar) over 12%; meal feeding, low roughage diets, housing/stabling conditions, weaning method and social contact. A 4-fold increase of the incidence of crib biting has been recorded in foals fed starch/sugar concentrates after weaning (Tables 1 and 2). Stable confinement is associated with increased risk of stereotypies compared with paddock weaning. Cribbing and wind-sucking occur most often in stabled horses - although once established the horse may exhibit these behaviours in other places. Recent studies indicate cribbing occurs more frequently in horses that were stable-weaned. At 20 weeks of age, 10.5% of weanlings on concentrates, low fibre and stabled-weaned demonstrate cribbiting/windsucking.

Another disease that is widely recognised as ‘man-made’ is developmental orthopaedic disease. In wild and feral horse populations - where there is no human influence - it is very rare (around 2%). Affecting 10 - 65% of all domestic weanlings, most joint and cartilage lesions are not detectable until the damage causes lameness, joint swelling or xray changes. However, the disease is present long before signs appear and begins during periods of skeletal vulnerability in the foal and weanling.

The term developmental orthopaedic disease (DOD) describes skeletal problems in growing horses - limb deformities, bone cysts, contracted tendons, club feet, joint enlargements, wobblers, osteochondritis dessicans (OCD) and physisitis (Figures 1 - 3). In long yearlings and early 2-year-olds, hock DOD is not uncommon and may present as a decrease in performance.

(insulin and thyroid), body weight, inappropriate or no exercise and growth rate. DOD is a complex, multifactorial disease. '...genetics loads the gun and the environment pulls the trigger...' Nutrition and exercise management determine whether the normal variations in cartilage thickness resolve spontaneously – or progress to DOD. Because the window of opportunity for sound bone and joint development is open for a short time, correct nutrition of the pregnant mare and young horse is essential for soundness. Prevention should be sought before and after birth and must be the priority for the foal, weanling and yearling.

Although osteochondrosis lesions are likely to happen during the first few months of life, there is thought to be a 'window of repair' between six months and one year of age during which diet and feeding changes that encourage consistent, steady growth result in spontaneous healing and resolution. This provides us with a second opportunity to guide and regulate growth to protect the future soundness of the young horse.

The period from 3 months before birth to 5 months of age is one of turbulent change for the musculo-skeletal system. In the foetal foal, bone begins as cartilage, gradually converting to mature bone during the first 18 months of life. Anything that disrupts or disturbs these dynamic processes affects the final constitution of joint cartilage. Because these processes are only active during the first year of life, DOD lesions only develop during this period – even they may not show up for months or years.

Specific joints have precise 'windows of vulnerability'. Hock DOD is usually present at 1 month of age, even though signs may not show until the horse is a 3 year old. Stifle lesions develop between 3 and 8 months of age but may not be apparent until 2 years of age and shoulder OCD or bone cysts may not become evident until 12-18 months of age.

During periods of vulnerability the joint is susceptible to the combined effects of nutritional imbalances, hormones

DOD lesions are formed in a very limited window of time and the pathologic insult to a susceptible joint is short (weeks), occurring randomly during the period of joint vulnerability. The age at which periods of irregularity occur varies for each joint. During periods of irregularity the joint is susceptible to the combined effects of nutritional imbalances, body weight and growth rate. Management determines whether the normal variations in cartilage thickness resolve spontaneously – or progress to DOD. This provides us with an opportunity to guide and regulate growth and to protect soundness.

RISK FACTORS FOR DOD:

1. Body weight and growth rate: With the exception of early fetlock lesions, DOD is linked to higher bodyweights and faster growth. The concussive trauma of high bodyweight increases the compressive load on the immature, growing skeleton and disrupts the blood supply to the cartilage - hindering its conversion to bone. Hock DOD occurs more frequently in taller and heavier-born foals; those that grow faster in height/weight and are >5kg above average at 4 weeks of age and >14kg at 8 months. Foals that are intermittently upright in the pasterns/contracted tendons (both signs of rapid bone growth) have more frequent and severe lesions. Taller foals; being 5.5kg heavier at 25 days and 17kg at 120 days, and faster weight gains from 3-5 months increase the chance of stifle and/or shoulder lesions. Wobblers are often taller and heavier with higher body weight, wither and hip height from birth to 12 months old, and faster weight gain at 1 - 2 months, 4 - 5 months and 7 - 8 months of age. Muscle growth should not be pushed forward at a time when joints are vulnerable. A lighter, leaner weanling with appropriate height (remember height, not muscle, is an indication of bone growth, not muscle) is the ideal.

2. Sweet feeds high in starch/sugar/NSC are known triggers in pregnant mares, foals and weanlings. These feeds affect blood sugar, insulin, acid levels and growth hormones for up to 4 hours after feeding. Diets based on fibre and oil, balanced with a vitamin/mineral supplement help reduce the risk of DOD and oral stereotypies.

3. Extruded and micronized feeds must be used with caution as their increased digestibility can produce more rapid and profound effects on blood glucose and insulin (Table 1). Pelleting causes lower glucose and insulin changes than textured feeds.

4. Minerals: Deficiencies, imbalances and excesses increase the incidence and severity and reduce the chance of spontaneous resolution. Inadequate mineral intake can occur if feeds are not correctly formulated or if they are fed at below recommended levels. These errors can be corrected by the incorporation of a highly fortified, low starch vitamin and mineral supplement. The surest way of determining if nutrition is a contributing factor is to perform a diet analysis of total daily intake so deficiencies or excesses can be identified and corrected.

5. Genetics: genetics represent approximately 25% of the risk – the environment (biomechanical influence, body weight, exercise and nutrition) accounts for 75%. All are interrelated and for foals with a genetic potential for rapid growth, correct nutrition is fundamental in preventing blood sugar and insulin surges, ensuring correct and balanced mineral intakes and regulating growth rate and body condition.

Weaning is an inevitable stressful event but with the right management we can help them transition smoothly from a nursing foal to a sound, confident yearling. DOD is self-limiting in some cases and crippling for others. Complex triggers and risk factors make diagnosis, treatment options and prognosis far from straightforward. Your veterinarian is the best source of information and advice. DOD can't be completely prevented, but there are measures that support joint development.

Grain-free	Usually means no whole grains - but can include grain by-products (bran, pollard, millrun, millmix, hominy meal etc) that are all high in starch/sugar NSC
Low sugar	The feed can still be high in starch - both starch AND sugar are important (starch PLUS sugar = NSC)
Low starch	The feed can still be high in sugar - both starch and sugar are important (sugar + starch = NSC)
Cereal by-products	Typically high in starch
Cereal co-products	Typically high in starch
Heat-processed*	Extrusion and micronisation: may also not be a good choice for horses with metabolic syndrome as increasing starch digestibility can cause a profound increase in blood glucose.

Grain-free	No whole grains but often include grain-by products such as bran and pollard, millrun etc which are high in NSC
Hominy meal	Ground corn meal ~ 38-45% NSC
Low GI	Glycaemic index (GI) is determined by measuring insulin, glucose and ACTH before and again 1, 2 and 3 hours after feeding to be labelled 'low GI' - request evidence that the manufacturer has done this.
Low sugar	It is the sugar + starch that is important so if the % starch or total NSC are not also given, it is misleading and likely unsafe.
Low starch	It is the sugar + starch that is important so if the % starch or total NSC are not also given, it is misleading and likely unsafe.
Nutrition analysis	Needs to list sugar - which may be listed as WSC or ESC AND starch or else the total NSC <12% - if this is not listed then the information is incomplete and the feed likely unsafe.
Cool feed	Cool feeds: implies the feed will not cause spikes in glucose, unless blood glucose levels have been measured after feeding, this term is misleading - contact the manufacturer for details of research.

A strong foundation of bone and joint development aids in performance and preventing lameness during the horse's career – and the incidence of obesity and insulin resistance. An understanding of the relationship between the processes of bone and joint growth and the influence of diet on metabolism and the hormones that orchestrate skeletal development enables us to optimize growth and protect future soundness.

One Hellofa Time's first foal, Smooth N Then Some, by Smooth As A Cat Q-78992, was foaled in 2014. A lovely dark brown mare, Katie was trained by Scott Campbell, showing successfully throughout her aged event years. In her first year at Toowoomba, she and Kirk ended up Reserve Champions in the Non Pro Classic. Due to Covid, the talented and cowy mare unfortunately missed most of her Classic years.

Katie doesn't see cattle at all when she's home, and she's worked on the flag only. Regardless, Kirk's been doing a great job of showing her for the last 4 years and having much success.

'We were going to sell Katie as a Futurity horse,' Kirk said. 'However, Scott told us not to sell her as she was the perfect horse for me to show. At the end of her Derby year, we took her home and since then I've been keeping her trained. We're only on a smaller acreage, so for the past 4 years, I've trained her on the flag. Sometimes I take her to a clinic, and if we're going across to Scott's place to see our horses in training, we may take her over to work on a few cows. That doesn't happen often, but, in my eyes, it's what makes Katie so good' The following show highlights prove that Smooth N Then Some has been an exciting mare to follow, making Kirk and Tracey understandably proud.

2019 saw Kirk and Katie become NCHA Open Futurity Finalists, Non Pro BI Amateur Champions, DDCC Non Pro Derby Finalists and Victoria Derby Finalists. In 2021, they took Res. Champion Amateur Classic at the NCHA Autumn Show, and in 2022 they were Victoria Futurity Amateur Classic

Champions, and also took High Point Area 10 Awards in Novice Non Pro and 15k Non Pro.

In April 2023, they marked a 77 to win the Peel Valley Cutting Club $15000 Non-Pro, a personal best for Kirk.

In March, 2024, the Southern Cross Cutting Club 2023 EOY Awards saw Kirk and Katie awarded the 15k Non Pro and Novice Non Pro Champions, where they received two Bob Berg buckles. To top it off, The Riddler, shown by Scott Campbell, was awarded the 5k Novice and 15k Novice Champions, also won 2 buckles!

Scott Campbell and The Riddler Q-94744

Heath Sinclair and One Hellofa Time Q-70519

When Kirk realised he and Katie were in the standings for the Novice Non Pro National Title, they headed to the Tri Star Show in January 2024. They won a little money and hit the lead! Then in March they won the 15k Non Pro Reserve Champions at the Nationals, and finished the year as 15k Non Pro National Champions and Novice Non Pro Champions!

'Smooth N Then Some is a special mare here at Clavar Cutting Horses,' Kirk says. 'She's the dam of a Badboonarisng yearling filly, the image of her. We're pretty excited about her and look forward to her future. We're pleased that horses we've bred, are proving successful for their owners in various disciplines!'

I'LL HAVE WHAT SHE'S HAVING!

DO YOU RELATE TO THIS AT FEEDING TIME?

It is incredible to think about the variety of feeds available to us and it seems a new feed company is popping up each month.

What we have seen in human health industry research is that we can learn a lot from how our grandparents ate.

Instead of filling a shopping trolley full of groceries, we should be eating fresh whole foods as often as possible. We should also be taking this approach with our horses and looking back to what the old timers fed. Keeping it simple, cost effective and fulfilling our horse's daily requirements and cutting out the junk food.

So what is in your bag of feed or supplement?

Is it mainly a processed diet, or one full of whole foods and natural ingredients?

The horse has specific dietary needs and has done since the beginning. Water is at the top of the list, followed by fibre, fats, protein, vitamins, and minerals. There are a lot of ways you can get these elements into your horse using natural ingredients.

Fibre is the number one requirement for a horse. Fibre has the largest variety and number of bacteria of any feed. Consuming fibre adds to a healthy gut microbiome. The more diverse the gut microbiome, the healthier the gut. Bacteria in the gut are responsible for many functions including metabolism, synthesizing vitamins, hormonal control, and digestion. The healthier the gut, the better the horse's temperament and performance. Fibre also opens the gastrointestinal tract and promotes peristalsis.

Reduction in feeding costs is achieved when roughage, such as pasture and hay, forms the basis of the diet. Select grasses that are low in fructans and non-structural carbohydrates. Steer clear of pastures that were cultivated for milk or meat production in cattle including rye grass and clover. Fibre comes in many forms and selecting good natural fibre is important.

Lucerne is an excellent source of fibre, energy, protein, calcium, and vitamin D. Being a long-stemmed fibre, lucerne encourages chewing which promotes saliva. Saliva is an essential acid buffer in the stomach.

Oaten Hay can be fed alongside lucerne hay in equal amounts and will offset the high protein content of lucerne. Its disadvantage is that it is higher in energy than most horses require. Meadow Hay has some advantages and disadvantages. Unless you obtain results on feed tests, then you can't be certain its nutritive value.

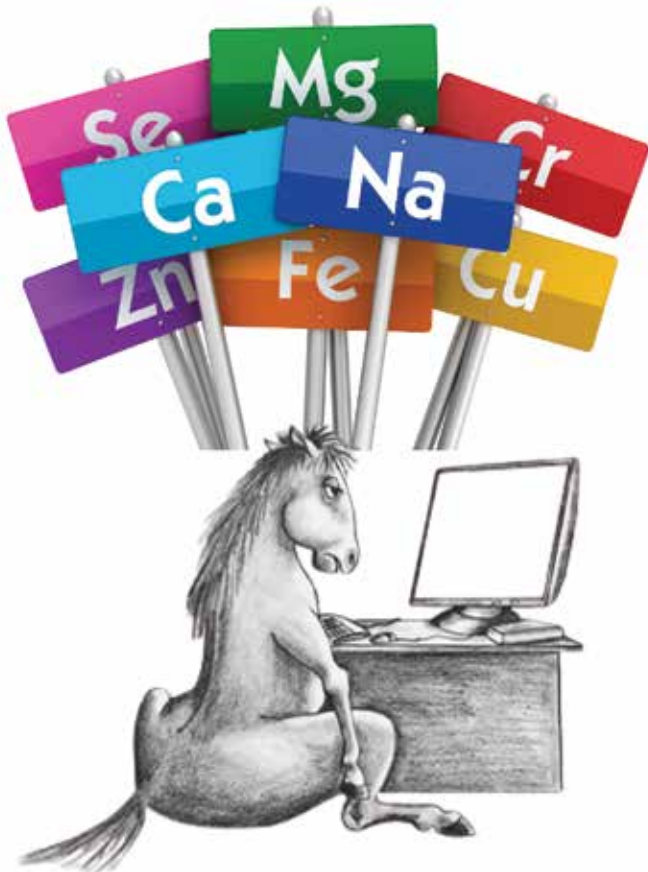

There is a great variance in protein, NSC, energy and nutritional value between different mixtures of meadow hays. Fussy and less hungry horses tend to pick through what they like and leave the rest. There is often some wastage involved. The best fibre to give a horse is native grass hay. It is nutritious and low in sugar.

Protein are amino acid building blocks for tissues blood and bone. Natural sources of fibre will also contain protein therefore a horse resting or in low to moderate work can usually be sustained on pasture or hay without adding additional protein to the diet. Australian pastures are usually quite high in protein.

Natural ingredients high in protein are Lucerne hay, full fat soy (human grade no hulls), whole linseeds, brewer's yeast.

Fat is as concentrated source of energy. Required for the utilization of fat-soluble vitamins. It works as an anti-inflammatory and aids in skin, nerve, and muscle health. There is reduced heat produced when digesting fat as an energy source compared to grain. Good sources of fat for horses are Cold pressed Flax seed oil. Hemp seed and soy. Up to 95% of fat is digestible in oils compared to approx. 55% digestibility in forages. Hay and pasture typically only contain 1%-3% fat.

Vitamins and Minerals These are available in pasture and hay but the quality and quantity are extremely unreliable. They also change with the seasons. Vitamins and minerals are required for metabolic function, tissue health, skin health, blood formation, immune response and nervous system support.

B Group Vitamins can be synthesized in the horse by hind gut fermentation, Vitamin D is produced by sunlight on skin, Vitamin C is produced in the liver and Vitamin K is synthesized by microorganisms of the cecum and colon.

All nutrients contain some vitamins and minerals but not necessarily enough to provide a fully balanced diet to your horse.

To counteract any deficiency in your natural diet, a vitamin and mineral supplement should be provided daily.

Look for a supplement that recommends a low daily rate. This means that the ingredients are well absorbed by the horse. If you have to feed out more than 30g – 50 g (per 500kg horse) then it is likely that you are feeding fillers or poorly absorbed forms of vitamins and minerals.

All of our horses have the same basic requirements. We can modify the simple diet when factors such as ill health, obesity, poor condition, breeding, young growing horses or workload come into play. A qualified nutritionist can support you through the slight adjustment required to suit your horses individuality.

THE MERRIE ELLIOTT BREEDERS CUP

WORDS BY/PHOTOS BY: MERRIE ELLIOTT BREEDERS CUP

It may come as a surprise to many that Sprint Racing has had a resurgence in this country, albeit on a smaller scale but nevertheless it is happening. For more than ten years now communities in Northern Queensland have stoically gone about the business of short distance racing, without fanfare, and have done a remarkable job to get it to the standard it is today.

Willomurra Fantail R1 - 3269 AA and Robert Rehn (in the foreground) pushing Willomurra Finnigan R1-3868 AAA ridden by Andy Read to the limit. These two were by Jet Master and out of Thoroughbred mares - they were fast, consistent, and determined.

And there are breeders in this country who are importing modern racing genetics from the USA to see it through. Allan Sullivan is one such man. "I've been a fan of the Quarter Horse for as long as I can remember with a strong leaning to the running QH. As a young person I purchased an Ima Go Man colt which I raced successfully and rode for several years, never quite appreciating his unique qualities. I soon became a fan of Go Man Go which continues to this very day. He's always at the top of my mind when I do a pedigree analysis for matings. I guess I like the 'underdog' who's had to get to the top the hard way.

In my late twenties I purchased the Go Man Go stallion, Friendly Ten from the Horden family. The problem was I had no money, no mares, no property, and no plan. This is how I came to know Merrie Elliott when I leased the horse to Willomurra QH Stud where she was stud manager. I would love to own him today, he would be a terrific sire.

In 1991, after having no horses for several years I set my focus on my new business Sullivans Mining & Hardware. By 2004/05 I was able to return to my love for the running horse and imported two mares, Scoot N Fly and Shez Nobodys Darling.

Both were by stallions that I considered were two of the best broodmare sires of all time - Strawfly Special and Heza Fast Man. The mares were in foal to Stoli, who had just won the All American Derby and was regarded as the hottest sire to stand at stud in many years. These two mares became the foundation of my breeding program. I've since imported (2022) another filly, Nauti by RC Me Leaving You.

"After a few years I became aware that there was some sprint racing happening in North Queensland. I wanted to test my breeding program so I approached them to see if I could help, and so the Merrie Elliott Breeders Cup was born."

Allan Sullivan initiated the Merrie Elliott Breeders Cup in 2020 to achieve a couple of objectives -

1. Quarter Horse racing was being held in far North Queensland but with minimal prizemoney, so he thought it would be a great tool to promote the growth of the sport and boost the local communities.

2. The name was chosen because he simply couldn't think of anyone more worthy - none who'd contributed as much for so long, to not only the running Quarter Horse but the industry in general. And this was a fitting tribute to honour Merrie Elliott's lifetime of commitment.

The concept for the Breeders cup was based on program successfully running elsewhere in the world and funded by breeders who nominated their stallions to allow the progeny to qualify for entry. In Australia, given the shortage of running bred horses, the progeny of non-nominated stallions have initially been accepted at a higher fee until such time as more of the progeny of the nominated sires are old enough to race. The remainder of the prizemoney is raised by funds generated from a horse sale, the Merrie Elliott Online Performance Auction held through AuctionsPlus, as well as sponsorship from Richmond Bush Sprints and Chris Wallin of Strategic Minerals, a major sponsor of the Richmond Bush Sprints meetings which features the Merrie Elliott Breeders Cup. Today the Merrie Elliott Breeders Cup is the richest Quarter Horse race in Australia with prizemoney at $20,000.

Dedicated breeders who valued the speed in the Quarter Horse nominated 12 stallions to get this idea off the ground. They were - Eysa Sensation, JB Eysa Hunch, Winning Deck, Chick Ching Cash, Sullivans Fast Man, VLR Outback Jess, First Down Under, GF Illusion, Like A Rock, Kellys Star, Sullivans Run and Sullivans Rocket. These stallion owners and the owners of the 22 runners nominated for the initial Merrie Elliott Breeders Cup all banded together for the promotion of sprint horse racing in this country. They have now been joined by more nominated sires - Instant Reaction, Eastern Eagle, Cool McCue, Wingara Jetstream, Wagon Tales, Sullivans Gatekeeper, Lil Kool Wagon, Go Kelly Go, Hez Our Secret, Ambassadors Jet, Cosmic Dash, Carters Cartel, Jess Lips, One Valiant Hero and Mighty B Valiant.

Following the running of heats, seven horses faced the starter for the final of the inaugural Merrie Elliott Breeders Cup in 2021. Seductive Sniper, a son of Seductive Fame and out of Gunna Excel, was the ultimate champion ridden to a clean finish by Eli Toby.

Many people in the Quarter Horse and Sprint Racing Industries will remember Merrie Elliott (nee Mattner) from her years as Stud Manager at Noel and Joan Fennell's Willomurra Quarter Horse Stud established in 1968 in Kersbrook, SA. Twenty years later Merrie married Barry (BJ) Elliott and departed from the Stud to start a new chapter of her life. Merrie adds "Willomurra had three exceptional stallions - Jet Master AAA, Warning Flag AA and Go Far Bob AAAT. Their speed, all round ability, disposition, toughness, and powers of concentration made them, to my way of thinking, the epitome of what a proper Quarter Horse should be. The great sprinters produced at Willomurra such as Tweed, Donegal, Finnigan AAA, In Flight AAA, Fantail AA and Katy Bar etc. consistently demonstrated the versatility of the running horse once they left the track. Barry and I never deviated from the ideal of those Willomurra horses and although the stallions we used - Ole Sugar Daddy, Great Stuff, Tamale and Winning Deck were unable to prove themselves on the tracks due to the cessation of racing, the speed was bred in them, and the other qualities were there in full measure."

For decades the Elliotts withstood pressure to breed their running mares to stallions of non-speed lines, using their homebred stallions and Mr Fitzjester TB in preference, until purchasing Winning Deck from Steve Hogno. Merrie explains, "It was never an option for us to abandon our herd of pure speed horses who'd always stepped up to the mark in whatever we asked of them and who could withstand the hard work Barry expected."

Horses bred by the Elliotts over the ensuing 35 years went on to excel in every discipline their new owners set them to - from campdrafting, roping, steer wrestling, barrel racing, polocrosse, mounted games to show jumping and everything else in between. And with great racing opportunities like the Breeders Cup growing in strength and numbers the opportunities for breeders of these speed horses will bring them to the fore once again.

"At first, I was aghast to learn that Allan Sullivan had hung my name on the Breeders Cup, but it was a done deal before I knew about it. So, I decided to view it as an honour. The fact that I regard speed as an essential component of the Quarter Horse made it easier to come to terms with my name becoming public" added Merrie. "Allan has really stepped out of his comfort zone in developing and promoting the Breeders Cup. It is my sincere hope that the racing people of North Queensland can come together, keeping lines of communication open, losing no opportunity for discussion and for ever keeping the big picture in front of them" to ensure that the concept of the Breeders Cup has every chance to succeed with local racing communities benefitting as a result.”

The Merrie Elliott Cup

The first two Breeders Cups were held at Normanton, which was the main stage for the sprint racing scene in North Queensland. In 2023 the race was moved to Richmond to take advantage of its more central location (a very important consideration given the immense distances connections and horses have to travel) as well as greater financial support. John Wharton, Mayor of Richmond, is a community focused leader of his Shire and a strong supporter of Quarter Horse racing. He sees the Merrie Elliott Breeders Cup as a great way to showcase and enhance their race meetings and turn them into an even greater success. His entry and subsequent win in the inaugural Cup are an example of how passionate he feels about supporting this great feature race.

In conclusion Allan would like to add, “The success of sprint racing and races like the Merrie Elliott Breeders Cup are dependent on the passion and enthusiasm of the industry as a whole and the ability of everyone to work together to achieve a broader result. The Merrie Elliott Breeders Cup has given me confidence that greater things can be achieved if we only give them a go, plan as best you can and keep looking forward.”

“Some of our fellow racing Americans have been taking a keen interest in the progress of the Merrie Elliott Breeders Cup and sprint racing in NQ and have offered support to help us grow the sport. Lazy E has been very generous with the donation of services to some of their top racing stallions in the USA. Hopefully we can entice more leading breeders of stallions in Australia to nominate for the Merrie Elliott which would not only help support our race but increase the quality of our performance product.”

The 2024 Merrie Elliott Breeders Cup is set for Saturday 14th September at the Richmond Race Track in Queensland. In addition to the prizemoney for the win and placings, a trophy and an Incentive of $1,400 cash will be awarded to the highest placing horse by a nominated stallion in this years’ race.

2024 STATE CHAMPIONSHIP SHOW REPORT

WORDS BY: WAQHA STATE SHOW ★ PHOTOS BY: REBECCA DE VRIES PHOTOGRAPHY

On behalf of the AQHA, the WAQHA presented the WAQHA AAA Di Candilo City State Championship Show 2Q24 at the State Equestrian Centre on 16 & 17 March 2024 with Judge Lorelei Payne. The entries were a good indication of how enthusiastic the competitors were, a great range of QH on display in varied events, led and under saddle.

The weather was perfect, sunny and clear, the arena was raked, volunteers eager to hand out ribbons and prizes, competitors keen to add another State Champion title to their riding portfolio. Catering was done by the local Walliston Scout Group, cooking up a storm of burgers, sweet cakes, cold drinks and many other treats, doing a great job delivering the food direct to the consumer, 5-star service.

The show commenced with an opening ceremony with the President Paula Balgera informing everyone about the show.

Then we were into the show! Some beautiful horses on display and well executed patterns were completed in the indoor arena. The events on offer ranged from Ranch Riding to Horsemanship, Hunter In Hand, Led Yearling events and the ever popular Halter classes. With 99 classes on offer, there was something for everyone!

Congratulation to all the Hi Point winners taking home an engraved Bob Berg buckle:

“ARBC” AUSTRALIAN REINING BREEDERS CLASSIC FOR 2024

The “ARBC” Australian Reining Breeders Classic celebrated 10 years of running this multidisciplined event in Dalby Qld in March this year and the growth seen in entries and spectators certainly showed how much this event is loved by all in so many. Held from 24th to 31st March at the Dalby Equestrian Centre, we welcomed well over 10,000 people to this incredible event over the 8 days of competition.

Lil Joe Cash Open Derby L 4 Champion - Lana Kelderman riding Nu Too Much Q-91387

We all know the ARBC is more than just a horse show... So give yourselves a great big round of applause for the fun and special memories we all have shared over the past 10 years of the show. This year we saw well over 1200 runs across the reining, challenge, campdraft and the much loved ARBC Australia's Greatest Horseman events. We thank the ARBC Nominated Stallion owners for supporting the ARBC and all that it represents in helping grow Reining and Challenge in Australia.

The Cash and Prize tally for this the final ARBC Show topped out at over $350,000 and event owners thank ever and every one of the 125 sponsors that contributed to this never seen before event prize pool. The prize pool has grown from just $26,470 in 2015 to this outstanding tally of $350,000 because of our sponsors believing in the ARBC, helping us to make history with a prestigious event like this one and our competitors have continued to support the event throughout the years to make this possible. Thank you goes out to all our major sponsors of the 2024 ARBC Show the support was overwhelming and very appreciated.

The ARBC Show was livestreamed around the world to an ever growing audience of over 63 countries sponsored by Shiny and Nu owner Deb Segeren. Coverage of this scale is testament to the fact that this is one of Australia's most prestigious events in the country. An event of this size takes a full year of planning in the lead up to this event and then a committed team of well over 35 support people and we thank them all for their commitment to ensuring the 9th Show across 10 years went off so successfully.

Yes, this was the final ARBC Show that Australia will see held however event owners Errol & Gita Thomas have handed the event model over to very capable private event organisers Jeff and Tracy Ralph. This event will move forward in 2025 under a new name of AGH Show and dates are being finalised in Tamworth NSW now.

The ARBC Australia's Greatest Horseman will continue to grow and the level of horse and rider combinations that entered this year is testament to the fact that it is attracting great attention from Australian and international competitors. Our 2024 Affinity Equine Lady Rider Award is in place to recognise and encourage rural women and all that they contribute both to their families and their desire to compete. Showing great horsemanship and sportsmanship throughout the event. To recognise a lady who displays all round good horsemanship, kind hands and determination, a true inspiration and role model to all our young riders venturing into the cow work events, whether it be Camp Drafting, Cutting or Stockmans Challenges.

This lady was selected by our cattle judge Huon Smith, with it being stated "This lady truly represents the spirit of women in our cattle events. She is quick to take on young up and coming horsemen and women to mentor them in this great sport. Always stepping up when it is time to show her horses for clients and breeders."

Our 2024 Affinity Equine Lady Rider Award recipient is the very deserving Leah Read. Congratulations Leah you certainly are a deserving winner of this special award, special thank you goes out to Fort Worth Saddlery and Affinity Equine for sponsoring the very special prizes awarded to Leah.

The Chris Parnell Sportsmanship and Encouragement Award, recognising the great sportsmanship of a competitor that perhaps didn't win anything but showed true sportsmanship towards competitors and her pony is now a perpetual award with the recipient selected by our judges. The winner of this special award this year was selected by our reining judges Jo McConnell, Darren Simpson, Susan Frost, Gary Yaghdjian & Steve Withers.

The 2023 Chris Parnell Award recipient is Tracey Charles who not only competed in the reining events, but was there as the PA to event owners throughout this massive week. Our Canadian reining judge Gary Yaghdjian spoke into why Tracey was selected and it certainly resonated the true spirit of both horsemanship and sportsmanship is a fundamental part of Tracey.

The Chris Parnell award was kindly sponsored by Checkout Hollywood owner Kathleen Murphy and Equissage Qld Lucie. Thank you, ladies, for ensuring the memory of this special lady and all that meant so much to her continues at the ARBC Show.

The celebration of our Champions continued with 10 big cheques presented to the deserved champions of the ARBC for 2024. We also presented Golders Dalby sponsored Championship Jackets to our feature event champions, Australia's Greatest Horseman Mark Buttsworth, Classic Challenge Daniel Lithgow, Derby Challenge Dan Steers, OPEN Challenge Nathan Wilson, OPEN Derby Lana Kelderman, Non Pro Derby Keiran Moses.

It was at the ARBC VIP dinner that event owners and creators Errol & Gita Thomas announced this being the last ARBC Show. After 10 years and 9 of these prestigious events, it was time for them and rightly so. Organising and pulling off an event of this size certainly leaves an amazing legacy across all disciplines being represented. The event model will go on under the new name of AGH Show, held around the same time of year offering the opportunity to continue the amazing comradery between reiners, challenge and cowhorse competitors.

ARBC Reining Judges

Thank you to our wonderful ARBC Official Photographer Ken Anderson Photography & Brendon Murray for these amazing photos.

We thank everyone that supported, competed or just came to watch the action and revel in the comradery that has become the ARBC Show. We will be doing a feature article on this legacy event the ARBC Show with Errol & Gita Thomas in the coming issues so keep an eye out on the story of this prestigious event.

2025 AGH Show dates will be released soon with the new event owners looking to take it to the next level again.
