

Madeline Kay

Madeline is committed to attracting more equine enthusiasts to our breed, whom then become actively involved in showing and enjoying this wonderful sport. She has organized and participated in western event demonstrations to illustrate the versatility and great temperament of the Quarter Horse. Madeline is looking forward to the trip to NZ.