TAKASHI WAKASUGI

Typical Japanese boy Takashi visited Sydney, Australia as an exchange student in 2012 and he joined the local comedy scene. He quickly built a unique reputation, performing at 'Homebake Festival 2012' and through frequent spots at the Sydney Comedy Store. Upon his return to Japan, he joined the English comedy scenes in Osaka and Tokyo. In 2018, he moved to Australia and started his comedy career in earnest. He was picked as a performer at Comedy Zone Asia at the Melbourne International Comedy Festival 2018 and performed on the ABC television show "Tonightly with Tom Ballard". His festival debut solo show "Welcome to Japan" sold out at comedy festivals around Australia. Stuck in a chasm between Japanese and Western culture, Takashi brings a fresh perspective on Aussie life. His insights into everyday life in Japan are sure to have you both fascinated & roaring with laughter.
