CONSTITUTIONAL AND STATUTORY PROVISIONS INVOLVED

U.S. Constitution 14th Amendment section 1

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

1. The Petitioner's motion to proceed as a poor person was denied by the Supreme Court of the State of New York, on November 6, 2017.

2. The Petitioner had appealed the decision described in section one of this page by moving the Court of Appeals of the State of New York for a stay of that same order, that he had sought leave to proceed in forma pauperis for, with the Supreme Court of the State of New York.

3. The return date for that same motion for stay as described in section 2 of this page, was set for November 27, 2017 and, when the Petitioner had contacted the motion clerk of the Court of Appeals of the State of New York on January 2, 2017, the motion clerk had told the Petitioner that there had not yet been a decision, made on that same motion for stay.

4. On January 2, 2017, the Petitioner had been notified by an attorney that a judgment had been entered against him that day, regarding this same matter on appeal with the Court of Appeals in the State of New York, and that the magistrate who entered the judgment had also recommended a sentence of 90 days in jail.

5. The Court of Appeals of the State of New York is refusing to rule on the same stay order described in section 2 of this page in an attempt to deny the Petitioner his right to appeal this matter with this court, the United States Supreme Court.

REASONS FOR GRANTING THE PETITION

1. By not granting this petition, the court would allow any state to make a criminal out of any innocent person, effectively granting the power of any state to become an oligarchy, with those whom construct the state courts are those whom are exclusively in power.

CONCLUSION

The petition for writ of mandamus should be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

Date: _____

Petitioner,

DECISION AND ORDER ON OBJECTION TO ORDERS OF SUPPORT MAGISTRATE

Michael J. Rotondo,

Respondent.

On October 6, 2016, Petitioner-Mother filed a petition seeking increase in Respondent-Father's child support obligation. On March 24, 2017, Respondent-Father filed a motion to dismiss the petition, which was denied on March 29, 2017. On March 30, 2017, Respondent-Father filed a second motion to dismiss the petition, which was denied on March 31, 2017. On April 5, 2017, Respondent-Father filed a third motion to dismiss, which was denied on April 5, 2017.

On April 13, 2017, Respondent-Father filed an objection to the denials of the second and third motions to dismiss. On April 28, 2017, both objections were denied because Family Court Act § 439 explicitly provides that review of a support magistrate's determination by a family court judge is only available upon the support magistrate's final order. (See also Rosado v Muniz, 2001 NY Slip Op 40203 [Fam Ct Aug. 24, 2001].) In response to the dismissal of his objections, Respondent-Father filed a notice of appeal on May 22, 2017. Such appeal was dismissed on August 25, 2017.

Meanwhile, the underlying matter concerning the petition to increase Respondent-Father's child support obligation proceeded to trial on May 25, 2017. After trial, the support magistrate granted Petitioner-Mother's petition, and increased Respondent-Father's child support obligation from $25.00 per month to $56.00 per week. The order was filed and entered on June 15, 2017, and mailed to the parties that same day.

Notice of Entry

Court of the State of New York in the

On September 14, 2017, Respondent-Father filed an objection to the order increasing his child support obligation. However, pursuant to FCA § 439(e), such objections were required to be filed on or before July 20, 2017. Therefore, these objections must be dismissed as untimely (Verzhbo v Grubelich, 147 AD3d 864, 865 [2d Dept 2017]; Xiao-Lan Ma v Washington, 112 AD3d 957, 957–58 [2d Dept 2013]; Minka v Minka, 219 AD2d 810, 811 [4th Dept 1995].)

In his objection, Respondent-Father asks that the late filing be excused because his appeal regarding the denial of his objection to the denial of his motions to dismiss was not dismissed until August 25, 2017. This Court is aware that in some circumstances appellate courts have directed the family court to consider objections which were not timely filed or were otherwise defective, but in cases where such failures have been excused, the circumstances have generally involved extenuating circumstances not present here (See e.g. Hobbs v Wansley, 143 AD3d 1138, 1139 [3d Dept 2016][holding that where proof established that the mother, appearing pro se, would have timely submitted her objections but for the inaccurate information provided by the court website, Family Court should have excused her untimely filing]; Ryan v Ryan, 110 AD3d 1176, 1179 [3d Dept 2013][Family Court should not have dismissed mother's objections as untimely where she filed one day late; mother was appearing pro se, and she could not obtain a sample affidavit of service or the services of a notary due to the closing of the courthouse caused by flooding conditions]; Onondaga County Com'r of Social Services on Behalf of Chakamda G. v Joe W.C., 233 AD2d 908 [4th Dept 1996][Family Court erred in denying respondent's objections as untimely where father attempted to extend his time to file objections by letter dated within the statutory time period]; see also Riley v Riley, 84 AD3d 1473, 1474 [3d Dept 2011].)

In any event, were this Court to reach the merits of Respondent-Father's objections, they would be denied. Respondent-Father's specific objection regarding the order of support is that his "net cash assets are [negative] $636.98,” that he is in debt by that same amount, and that he does not have the income to pay his own bills.

In her finding, the support magistrate concluded that, “[b]ased upon the testimony of the Respondent regarding his efforts to seek employment, the Court finds those efforts to be minimal at best. Since the Respondent has not made reasonable efforts to seek employment, based upon his prior work history, the Court is imputing income to the Respondent in the sum of $400.00 per week. The presumed amount of support is therefore $56.00 per week.”

Pursuant to FCA 439(e), objections to a support magistrate’s order must be pled with specificity. In this case, Respondent-Father asserts no specific error with regard to this determination; therefore, the objections must also be denied on this basis. (Farruggia v Farruggia, 125 AD3d 1490, 1491 [4th Dept 2015]; White v Knapp, 66 AD3d 1358, 1359 [4th Dept 2009].)

To the extent that Respondent-Father’s objection can be read as challenging the support magistrate’s finding that his efforts to seek employment were not diligent enough to avoid imputation of income, the support magistrate has broad discretion in imputing income to a parent. (Squitieri v Squitieri, 90 AD3d 500, 500 [1st Dept 2011].) Family Court’s review under Family Ct. Act § 439(e) is tantamount to appellate review (Renee XX. v. John ZZ., 51 AD3d 1090, 1092 [3d Dept 2008].) The “greatest deference” should be given to the determination of the Support Magistrate, who “is in the best position to assess the credibility of the witnesses and the evidence proffered” (Matter of Denoto v. Denoto, 96 AD3d 1646 [4th Dept 2012].) The Court notes that an assessment of a parent’s job search efforts depends on the credibility of the parent’s testimony regarding the diligence of his or her job search efforts; therefore, the determination of the trier of facts should be accorded great weight (Musumeci v Musumeci, 295 AD2d 516, 516 [2d Dept 2002].) Further, unless there is a lack of record support, the Support Magistrate’s decision should not be disturbed (see Rossiter v. Rossiter, 56 AD3d 1011, 1011 [3d Dept 2008].)

In this case, the record documents that Respondent-Father is twenty-nine years old, and lives with his parents. He testified that he most recently worked as a ski instructor, from January, 2017 to March, 2017. Prior to January, 2017, he last worked as a sales associate at Best Buy from 2012 to 2015, and that such employment ended because he was fired.

Notably, on March 29, 2017, the support magistrate directed Respondent-Father to document his efforts to seek employment in job search log, provided him with a form to do so, and directed him to bring the log with him on the trial date. Respondent-Father failed to do so, testifying that it had "slipped his mind." Respondent-Father was also referred to the Parent Support Program, to assist with his efforts to find a job. Respondent-Father chose not to work with the program, because he believed doing so would not "help" his case.

The only further evidence Respondent-Father offered regarding his job search efforts was his testimony that he had a resume, and that he had applied for two jobs in the past year. He had only applied for two positions because he did not want to accept a position he did not think he could work at for at least three years, and for that reason he had ruled out working in retail or the fast food industry. Plainly, the foregoing is ample support for the support magistrate's determination that Respondent-Father's efforts to find employment so he can support his child are woefully inadequate.

Finally, Respondent-Father's claim that he simply cannot afford to pay child support for his son is completely undermined by his testimony that, for the past five years, he has paid $1,944.00 per year for a storage unit in which to store his 1989 Camaro and other belongings, such as his sporting equipment and gaming equipment. When questioned why he did not sell such belongings, he claimed that they had no value except sentimental, and he had no legitimate answer for the obvious question of why it made sense to spend more than $9,000.00 over the last five years to store valueless belongings, at the same time asserting that he could not afford to pay support for his son.

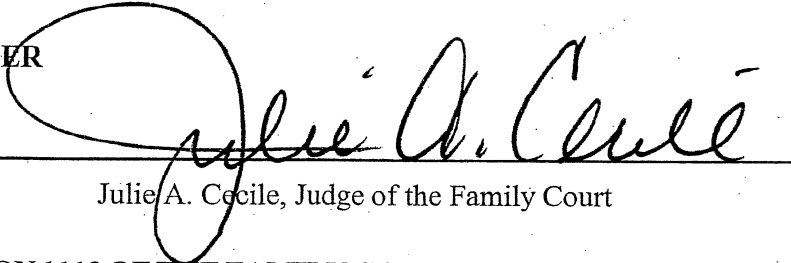

NOW, therefore, for the foregoing reasons, it is hereby ORDERED, that Respondent-Father's objections are denied and dismissed.

	Angela C Gasparini	Michael J Rotondo	Method
Basic Payment		$56.00 weekly	SCU

Angela C Gasparini filed a petition in this Court on February 22, 2017 seeking to modify an order, dated April 19, 2012, made by the Onondaga County Family Court which granted support for:

Name

Date of Birth

Social Security Number

Michael J Rotondo appeared before this Court to answer the petition, and the unrepresented parties, if any, were advised by the Court of the right to counsel; and the Petitioner appeared with counsel, and the Respondent appeared pro se for the hearing on May 25, 2017;

NOW, based upon the FINDINGS OF FACT, the Court finds that:

Michael J Rotondo is the non-custodial party, whose pro rata share of the basic child support obligation is $56.00 weekly for the following child:

Name	Date of Birth

[REDACTED]	[REDACTED]

The parties have been advised of the provisions of Section 413(1) of the Family Court Act and the unrepresented parties, if any, have received a copy of the child support standards chart promulgated by the Commissioner of the N.Y.S. Office of Temporary and Disability Assistance pursuant to Section 111-i of the Social Services Law;

The basic child support obligation stated above presumptively results in the correct amount of child support to be awarded; Michael J Rotondo's pro rata share of the basic child support obligation is neither unjust nor inappropriate;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that effective February 22, 2017, Michael J Rotondo is chargeable with the support of [REDACTED] and is possessed of sufficient means and ability to earn such means to provide the payment of the sum of $56.00 weekly to Angela C Gasparini payable through the Support Collection Unit, such payments to commence on June 23, 2017; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Petitioner is not responsible for added sums for cash medical support, health insurance, uncovered health care expenses or day care expenses, as his income falls within the self-support reserve or poverty level after paying child support; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the payor, custodial party and any other individual parties immediately notify the Support Collection Unit of any changes in the following information: residential and mailing addresses, social security number, telephone number, driver's license number; and name, address and telephone numbers of the parties' employers;

IT IS ADJUDGED that health insurance availability for each party is as follows: For Angela C Gasparini, health insurance is not offered through an employer or organization. For Michael J Rotondo, health insurance is not offered through an employer or organization.

This court having found that no health insurance coverage is available for the child, but the child may be eligible for health insurance benefits under the New York "Child Health Plus" program or New York State Medical Assistance Program, it is hereby ORDERED that Angela C Gasparini shall continue the eligible child in the "Child Health

Plus" program (the NYS health insurance program for children) and the New York State Medical Assistance Program or the publicly funded health insurance program in the State where the custodial parent resides;

IT IS ORDERED that the parties shall notify each other in writing of changes in income, employment or address within 3 days; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this Order shall be enforceable pursuant to Section 5241 or 5242 of the Civil Practice Law and Rules, or in any other manner provided by law.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Michael J Rotondo,

Respondent.

Susan Hamlin Nasci, being the Support Magistrate before whom the issues of support in the above-entitled proceeding were assigned for determination, makes the following findings of fact:

The Petitioner filed a petition on February 22, 2017 seeking to modify an order dated April 19, 2012 which provided for the support of the following child:

Name	Date of Birth
[REDACTED]

The Petitioner appeared with counsel and the Respondent appeared pro se and a hearing was held on May 25, 2017. Based upon the testimony and evidence presented the Court makes the following findings.

The prior order was entered on May 12, 2011, requiring the Respondent to pay support to the Petitioner in the sum of $25.00 per month. The Petitioner requests an increase in support based upon the income of the Respondent or the ability to the Respondent to earn income. The prior order was entered when the Respondent was not working.

The Petitioner is self employed and her income is set forth in Appendix A, she has not day care expenses and the child is covered through Child Health Plus for medical insurance.

The Respondent testified that: he is not employed; he resides with his parents; he does not pay rent; his parents pay his cell phone expense; the Respondent pays his car insurance expense of $460.00 every 6 months; and he pays $162.00 per month for the storage fee for 1989 Camero, and other various items, which he has been paying for more than five years.

The Respondent testified that he is not employed at this time, and he was last employed in March 2017 as a part time ski instructor earning $9.70 per hour for 15 hours per week. The Respondent testified about his work history and his efforts to seek employment. The Respondent did not bring a job search log to the Court as required by the Court.

The Respondent testified that: he was employed at Best Buy from 2012 to 2015, and he was terminated from this job; he received unemployment benefits after his employment at Best Buy; he attended college for a very brief period of time; he has applied for some jobs in IT/computer jobs; he is trying to start his own business doing metal working and welding, or selling internet services to businesses; he has not applied for retail jobs or fast food jobs; he considered applying at Staples but does not think it is a good environment; and he has not found suitable full time employment.

The Court finds that there has been a sufficient change in circumstances since the entry of the prior order, in that the Respondent is able to work. Based upon the testimony of the Respondent regarding his efforts to seek employment, the Court finds those efforts to be minimal at best. Since the Respondent has not made reasonable efforts to seek employment, based upon his prior work history, the Court is imputing income to the Respondent in the sum of $400.00 per week. The presumed amount of support is therefore $56.00 per week. The Court finds this amount to be just and appropriate and that the Respondent is able to pay said sum, which shall be retroactive to the filing of the petition on February 22, 2017. The payments shall be made through the Support Collection Unit.

The basic child support obligation for support of the following child is $135.00 weekly:

Name	Date of Birth
[REDACTED]

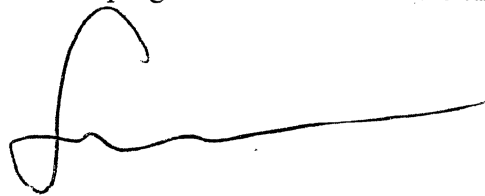

Angela C Gasparini is the custodial party, whose pro rata share of the basic child support obligation is $79.00 weekly. Michael J Rotondo is the non-custodial party, whose pro rata share of the basic child support obligation is $56.00 weekly.

Michael J Rotondo is not responsible for added sums for cash medical support, health insurance, uncovered health care expenses or day care expenses, as his income falls within the self support reserve or poverty level after paying the above amount toward child support.

Health insurance availability for each party is as follows: For Angela C Gasparini, health insurance is not offered through an employer or organization. For Michael J Rotondo, health insurance is not offered through an employer or organization.

The custodial party, Angela C Gasparini, shall continue the child, [REDACTED] in the New York State "Child Health Plus Program" and the New York State Medical Assistance Program or the publicly funded health insurance program in the State where the custodial parent resides.

The presumptively correct basic child support payment is limited to $56.30 weekly because the full percentage amount brings Michael J Rotondo's income below the self-support reserve.
