A monday.com expert in the palm of your hand

“What if Monday.com focused on other things that it is shockingly bad at vs developing something with the letters ‘AI’ so that you can mention it on earnings calls?”

- An angry user

The End.

“Maybe Monday.com should use some AI model to comb through its community board to see how let down its users are”

-Jake N Usernamegame

Hello, I'm here to help. What can I do for you today?

What is a board? Please explain in two sentences.

A board is a virtual whiteboard where you can manage workflows and projects. It can be either visible to anyone in your team or private, and can be categorized into groups, items, and columns.

How do I add a board?

To add a new board, click on the blue "+ Add" button at the top left of your screen and then select "New Board". From the same menu, you can also choose to import a new board from Excel, Google Sheets, Trello, and more, or choose from a pre-prepared template.

Easier for first-time users.

As a first time user, I “struggle to move from the dreamy easy flow Monday presents in their documentation... to the actual real world brain twister of how to get... [my art] company... [on this] software.”

Hello, I'm here to help. What can I do for you today?

I am an art collector. How can I use Monday.com to organize my finances and art showings?

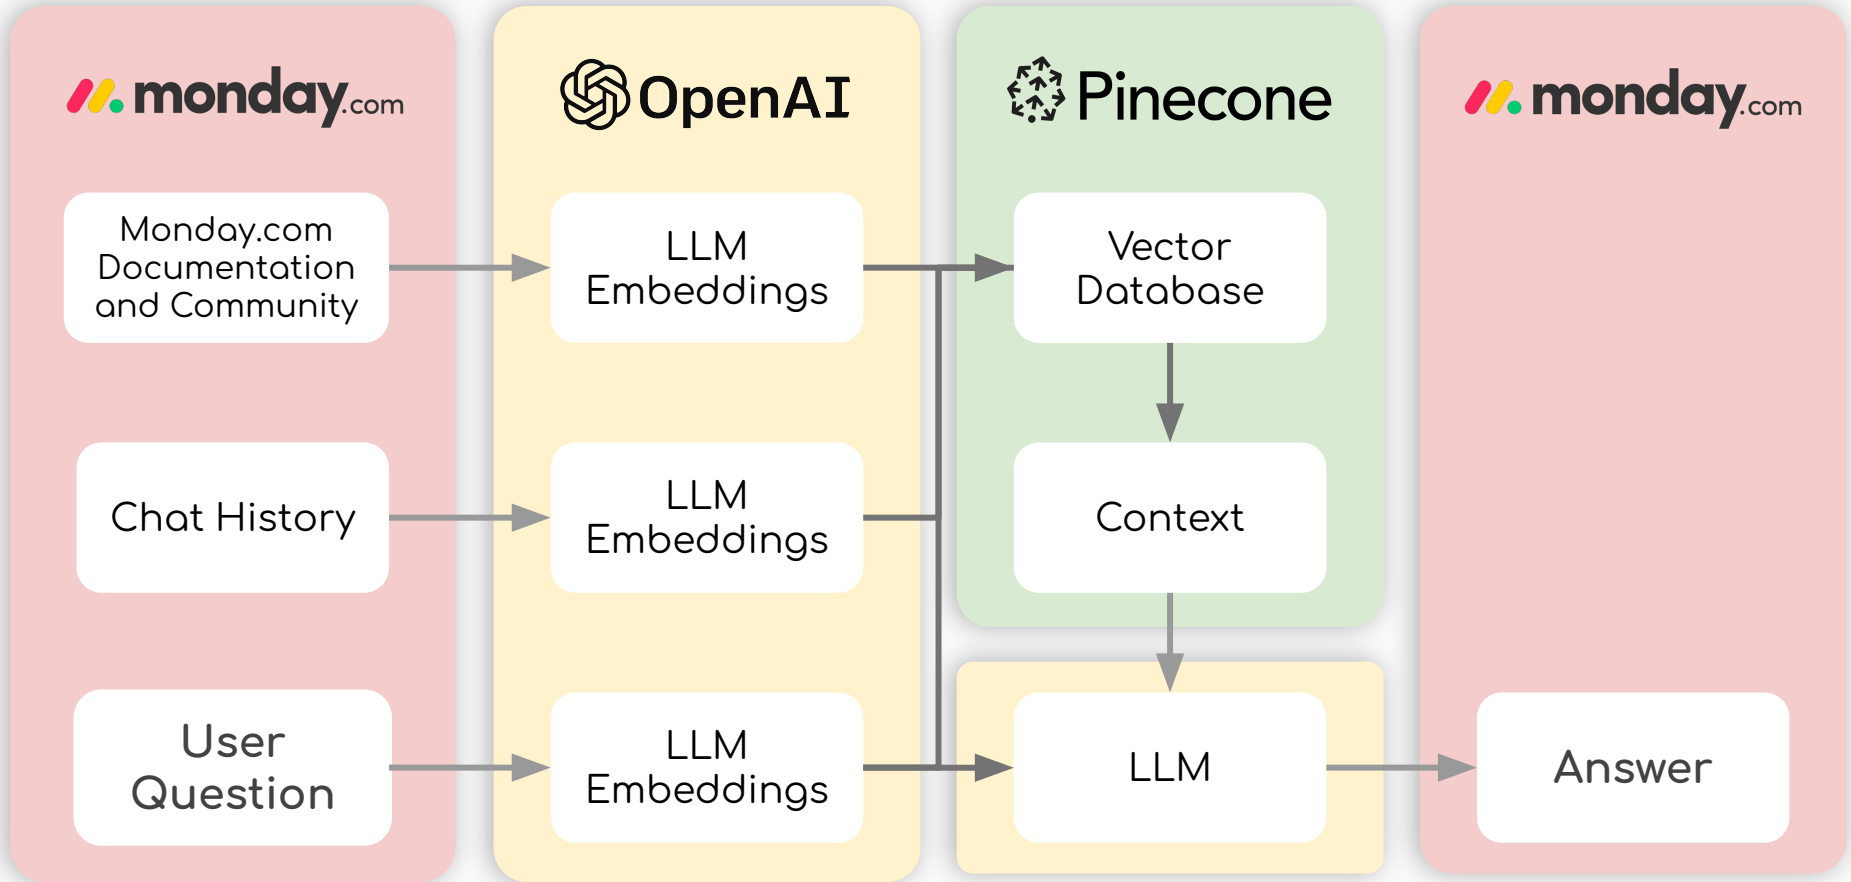

Monday.com can be used to manage a wide variety of workflows, including organizing finances and art showings for an art collector. You can create custom boards to track expenses, invoices, and payments, as well as boards to manage the logistics of art showings, such as scheduling, guest lists, and artwork inventory. Additionally, you can use Monday's customizable building blocks to tailor your workflows to your specific needs.
