PROBLEM STATEMENT:

Many people face challenges when trying to learn a new language. Traditional language learning methods can be boring, lack personalized feedback, and may not adapt to individual learning styles. Additionally, finding time for structured lessons in our busy lives can be a hurdle. There is a need for an innovative language learning solution that is engaging, personalized, and flexible, allowing users to learn at their own pace, practice speaking, and gain cultural insights. This solution should make language learning accessible to everyone, breaking down barriers and making the process enjoyable and effective.
