However, it does mention the presence of angels on the Day of Judgment in several verses, such as Surah 30:56, which reads: "And those who have been given knowledge and faith say: 'You have certainly remained in the Book of God until the Day of Resurrection. So this is the Day of Resurrection, but you did not know.'"

QuranicAI: Allah is the Arabic word for God, and it is a common name for God in the Quran. The word "Allah" is derived from the Arabic root "al-", which means "the", and "ilah", which means "God". The word "Allah" is first mentioned in the Quran in the Surah of Al-Fatiha, which is the first chapter of the Quran. In the Surah, God is referred to as "the Lord of the Worlds". The word "Allah" is also mentioned in many other Surahs of the Quran, including the Surah of Al-An'am, the Surah of Al-A'raf, and the Surah of Al-Furqan.
