The Challenge

What is the Problem?

01

Traditional tourism experiences often lack personalization

02

Language barriers limit the reach of cultural exploration

03

Static content fails to engage a global audience

04

Limited opportunities for user-generated content and community engagement

Our Solution

Solution 01

Use AI to transform 360-degree videos
into immersive 3D models

Solution 02

Infuse models with multilingual poetry for global accessibility

Solution 03

Foster a community of creators and explorers on our platform

First Option

Generate revenue through ads and sponsorships on our platform

How Will This Application Make Money?

Second Option

Incentivize user participation by sharing a portion of the ad revenue with content creators

What is the Future?

Envision a future where AI-driven platforms redefine tourism
