The Problem Leads To

Messages can be: security warnings, scientific articles, newsletters, or advertisements. and others

01

Missing Appointments

People receive too many emails and struggle to keep up with important ones

02

Low Efficiency

Busy professionals often don't have time to read through lengthy emails

03

Missed Opportunities

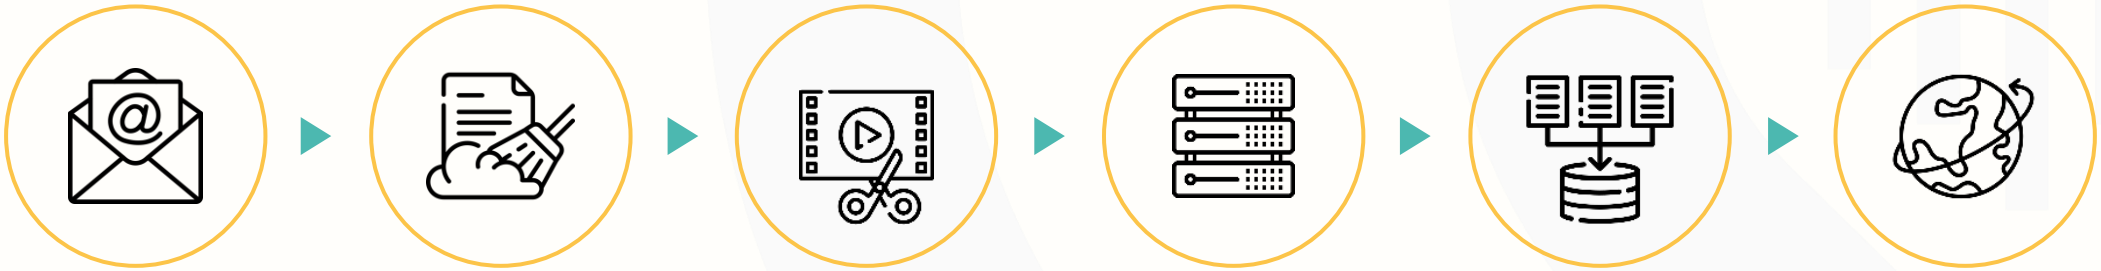
It can be difficult to determine which emails require immediate attention and which can wait

People spend a lot of time commuting between 4% and 7% of the day, this time can be used to listen to audio feeds about their emails

Proposed Solution:

Listen To Your Emails Summary While On The Go

An innovative application that helps users manage email communications more efficiently by summarizing emails using AI and sending them directly to their WhatsApp.



Capture ▶ Prepare ▶ Summarize ▶ Convert ▶ Store ▶ Send

Added Value

The app is a game-changer for busy professionals looking for a more efficient way to manage their inboxes and stay on top of their important communications.

Right Content

01

Using AI to summarize emails and identify key information

Right Time

02

Listen to an audio summary of emails on the go, and stay on top of important communications

Right Action

03

Identify important messages, with the ability to forward messages and share them with others.
