Dear Rabbi Lamm:

I was delighted to learn of your acceptance to participate in the Religious Emphasis program here at the Beth Jacob Synagogue. Vick Geller of CSD informed me this morning of your availability, and I am truly looking forward of having you with us.

Briefly let me tell you what the program is about and the particular role which you will play. In carrying over a successful Chaplaincy experience of R.E.W., I thought of sponsoring a week of HISORARUS, "RELIGIOUS REVIVAL", during Aseres Yeme T'Shuvah. The program calls for a concentrated week of lectures, seminars, workshops, films, and discussion groups, under the theme of T.T.T., T'shuvah, T'phila, T'zidaka. I would like for you to handle the opening lecture Monday, October 5 at 8:30 P.M. on the theme of "The Sanctity of Married Life in the Jewish Home and in the Synagogue". This topic should reacquaint and reaffirm the attitude of the people toward Taharas Ahamispocha and ~~seperate~~ seating in the Synagogue.

By the way, I must compliment you on the very excellent piece on the mixed seating issue which appeared in "Tradition". It was refreshing and stimulating.

As Mr. Geller has informed you, we would like to take care of your round trip transportation on a flight to Columbus and present you with an honorarium of $50. I have checked the schedule of flights for Monday, October 5, and I believe that the best schedule would be to follow TWA flights #309 arriving in Columbus 4:47 P.M. then departing the next morning on flight 266.

You will be my house guest during your stay in Columbus. Please let me know if this schedule sounds convenient to you. I would appreciate it if you would send me by return mail a photo of yourself and a biographical sketch for publicity purposes.

Warmest personal regards
A Kisivan V'achasimah Tov
