Dear Saul:

Apparently my trip to Israel, and the accumulated correspondence, plus two unavoidable out-of-town lecture engagements since, have caused a massive mix-up in my correspondence.

I just today read the summary of your February 11th meeting, and the invitation to the February 20th meeting.

You may rest assured that I would have made every effort to attend had I been aware of the meeting in advance.

Meanwhile, please be kind enough to keep me informed. I also wonder whether you received my recent letter, copies of which were mailed to Steve Riskin and Moe Feuerstein, concerning the nursing home scandal. I think it is urgent that we be prepared to move in with it at the appropriate time. In order to do so without delay, as much advance preparation as possible is important.

All best wishes.

Cordially yours,

RABBI NORMAN LAMM
