Dear Professor Gurock,

Let me update you with respect to the Higayon Conference.

The conference is scheduled to open on the evening of Monday, October 26 and will take place in BMT as originally planned. On Tuesday there will be sessions throughout the day and on Wednesday there will be sessions until 5:00 P.M., followed by a closed session for mathematicians. The closed session will take place in the home of Mr. M. Brachfeld in Motza.

As I mentioned to you, Mr. Brachfeld is contributing $5,000 towards the publication of the proceedings. I've just met with Rabbi Rackman who has confirmed that Bar-Ilan will match Yeshiva's $7,000 contribution.

The opening session will feature Rabbi Lamm and Rabbi A. Lichtenstein, pending final agreement of each to attend. Could you please ask Rabbi Lamm to confirm his participation as soon as possible. (I'm leaving after Tisha B'Av for a month of Miluim.) Also please ask him to let me know if he intends to speak in English or Hebrew (Hebrew is preferable).

I'll keep you informed of further developments.

Best regards,
