

CONGREGATION KODIMOH

SPRINGFIELD 8, MASSACHUSETTS

Mar. 1, 1954

Dear Member:

The Late Friday Nite Services this week will serve as a "Welcome Home" reception for Rabbi and Mrs. Lamm.

Services will begin at 8.15. Rabbi Lamm's sermon will be:

"The Phycological History of the Demand for Change in Law"

This is the last installment of "The Place of Jewish Law in Jewish Life"

Cantor Herman Abramson and the Choir will chant the services. Following the services a special Oneg Shebat will be held in the vestry honoring the home coming of Rabbi and Mrs. Lamm.

On Saturday morning, "Parsha Shkolim" Rabbi Lamm's sermon Mar. 1, 1954 will be:

"Jewish Attitudes towards Wealth"

Dear Member: A "Home Coming" Kiddush will be held in the vestry following the services. This will serve as a "Welcome Home"

Let us give the Rabbi and new Rebetzin a warm welcome on their "Homecoming" attend all services this weekend.

Lamm's sermon will be: Sincerely,
Aaron Kurn,
President of the Congregation Kodimoh

P. S. Jr. Cong. will meet at 9.45 Saturday morning. Following services they will join us in the Kiddush. Send your child to services, or better still, bring your child to services every Saturday.

Cantor Herman Abramson and the Choir will chant the services. Following the services a special Oneg Shebat will be held in the vestry honoring the home coming of Rabbi and Mrs. Lamm.