RE: SIMHAT TORAH

In order to avoid the extremes of coldness and wildness at the Simhat Torah services, I suggest the following:

1. There should be more singing and dancing during Hakofot both at night and the morning. Everybody should be invited to join.

2. Songs should be mimeographed in advance and distributed so that all may join.

Who are they? Who'll see them?
3. Troublemakers should be seen personally in advance.

4. Two ushers should be stationed at the "bimah" before and during Musaf services.

Please make note of this and make sure that we discuss it before we leave for summer vacations.

Glad to - Let us fix a time for this and other matters to discuss
