Dear Norman,

Congratulations on your appointment.
This was, of course, bound to come. Strange that this time the best man available was elected to an important position.

I wish you well personally but also - and mainly - because I wish Amer. Jewry - and perhaps I ought to say, Judaism at large, well.

I believe it is not 'belittling' the achievements of Dr. Belkin to say that we have reached a stage at which Y. U. needs a new direction, a comprehensive integrated educational philosophy and an intended, desired confrontation with the problems of the day.

You, belonging to another generation, fully involved in the problematics of the contemporary situation, are able to do the job. I may that you have the pre-hand that you need. Sincerely, David Belkin.
